

LIBRARY SUPPORT

The AEA-IRC is extending support to our faculty members and students who are implementing the Distance Learning Mode as precautionary measure to prevent the spread of COVID 19 through the following online services:

REMOTE ACCESS TO ONLINE RESOURCES/DATABASES

Providing assistance in securing and using OpenAthens account.

Request may be sent to aklatan@dlsud.edu.ph

INSTRUCTION ON HOW TO USE ONLINE RESOURCES

could be accessed through the Information Guide section of library website at www.dlsud.edu.ph/library.htm.

AUTHENTICATION SERVICES

Providing assistance in securing PlagScan code for students through aklatanplagiarism@dlsud.edu.ph and PlagScan account for faculty members through aklatan@dlsud.edu.ph

WAIVING OF OVERDUE FINES

All books borrowed with due date that fall within March 16 to April 14 will not be charged with overdue fines. Graduate students may return their books on April 18, Saturday without paying any overdue fines, too.

NO NEED TO REQUEST FOR RENEWAL

LIBRARY VIRTUAL ASSISTANCE

Your library personnel accepts library related online inquiries via AEA-IRC e-mail account (aklatan@dlsud.edu.ph) or through direct messaging at DLSU-D Library Facebook account

In this most challenging period of time, the library management is glad to assist the academic community to make their online teaching and learning more meaningful .
