

Anthony Pangilinan

Anthony Pangilinan is a well-known advocate of the promotion of good change through a variety of tools and platforms combining real-time, on-site engagements and media channels for impact and sustainability.

Anthony Pangilinan is a seasoned motivational speaker, workshop designer, and implementor. He uses his expertise to conduct social and mass media programs. He also consults for different NGOs, companies, and brands.

Pangilinan is the Chairman and "Chief Disturber" for Business Works Inc., a key player in the management training and consulting industry in the country today. He is also Chairman of MediaWorks, a production and talent management company.

He completed his master's degree in Consulting and Coaching for Change from INSEAD in 2019 after earning his executive master's in business administration and management from the same institution in 2014.

Pangilinan also serves as president of Called to Rescue Philippines, the local chapter of an international organization that helps rescue and protect children from sex trafficking, violence, and abuse.

Pangilinan is also a successful author of several books including Designed for Success, the Time Check Life Planner, Success Plus!, and Marriage is a Marathon with his wife, Maricel Laxa-Pangilinan with whom he has 5 kids—Ella, Donny, Hannah, Benjamin, and Solana.