

Linkages and Scholarship Office

June 2024

DLSU-D, in its pursuit of expanding global partnerships, sealed a Memorandum of Understanding with Christ University in India. The heads of the two institutions, Br. Francisco de la Rosa VI FSC and Dr. Fr. Joseph CC were present at the signing held at CU's Bengaluru Campus on May 31, 2024. The institutional cooperation is set to stage collaborations in mission, mobility programs, and scholarship opportunities for DLSU-D students. Furthermore, pocket meetings were carried out to define the areas of partnership. Dr. Sonia Gementiza, Dr. George Francisco, Mr. Dennison Joseph, and Dr. Vinay Jha Pillai attended the discussion.

The Campus Chief of Kadambari Memorial College in Nepal Prof. Pradipta Kadambari warmly welcomes DLSU-D President Br. Francisco de la Rosa VI FSC for a collaboration on mission and service learning programs. The two-day official visit includes signing of the memorandum of understanding and meetings participated in by Dr. Sonia Gementiza, Dr. George Francisco, and the team from KMC - Nepal.

Linkages and Scholarship Office

June 2024

St. Joseph Institute International in Singapore visited DLSU-D for an exploratory talk on mission and cultural exchange programs. The team toured at the Museo de la Salle, Bahay Pagasa Dasmariñas, and RCC, and was assisted by Br. Carlo Rementilla, Br. Aikee Esmeli, Br. Jeano Endaya, and other officials of the university.

DLSU-D welcomes group of Australian students and educators from John Paul College - Sydney, Australia for mission and cultural exchange programs. They will hold volunteer work for the Bahay Pagasa Dasmariñas residents, participate in culture and arts lectures, take a Museo de La Salle tour, and celebrate anticipated mass with the community. This engagement is a realization of the memorandum of understanding between the university and Catholic Mission - Australia.

Linkages and Scholarship Office

June 2024

Three students from the Colleges of Science and Computer Studies and Tourism and Hospitality Management will fly to Lewis University in Chicago, Illinois, USA, to represent the university for the annual student training hosted by the International Association of Lasallian Universities. The two-week training will be participated in by Khristine Alcartado, Jana Ng, and Ullysis Valle, plus other Lasallian students worldwide.

The Linkages and Scholarship Office welcomes the team of WPH Digital, a Singaporean company that provides educational and training development programs. The follow-up visit centers on mapping out training and internship programs, joint research collaboration on digital carbon footprints, and other opportunities for the university's computer science and information technology students.

Linkages and Scholarship Office

June 2024

The Colleges of Education, Science and Computer Studies, and Tourism and Hospitality Management sign contracts availing of the "Linkage-related Activity Subsidy" provided by the Linkages and Scholarship Office. Represented by the three esteemed deans, Dr. Jose Arvin Gacelo, Dr. Rubie Causaren, and Mr. Paul Anthony Notorio, the said colleges will collaborate with our partner institutions and organizations in Chiang Rai Rajabhat University in Thailand, Hanoi National University of Education in Vietnam, and the London School of Public Relations in Indonesia. These internationalization efforts aim to increase our presence in Southeast Asia by conducting joint conferences, curricula evaluation, and mobility programs.

With the growing engagements of the university's Senior High School Department on research collaboration, the Office of the President headed by Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI FSC initiated a partnership through a memorandum of understanding with St. Mary's School of Sagada, Inc. The MOU hopes to address three areas on United Nations SDGs namely, quality education, climate action, and partnerships for the goals. Present at the signing are the following: Rev. Marites Guron, Dr. Sonia Gementiza, and other representatives from the two institutions.

Linkages and Scholarship Office

June 2024

Last May 31, 2024, several young men embarked on a life-changing path. Taking a huge step in molding their future as Lasallian Brothers – they immersed themselves in the Lasallian Spirit by visiting DLSU-D and DLSMHSI, fellowships, and welcome dinner with the Residencia Brothers.

DLSU-D receives Saint Columban College administrators for a benchmarking program on leadership and internationalization facilitated by the VP for Mission and Formation, Mr. Jose Ritche Bongcaron, and Linkages Director, Dr. George Francisco. The visit also includes a Museo de la Salle tour and engagements with the brothers hosted by Br. Jimmy Dalumpines.

DLSU-D receives Saint Columban College administrators for a benchmarking program on leadership and internationalization facilitated by the VP for Mission and Formation, Mr. Jose Ritche Bongcaron, and Linkages Director, Dr. George Francisco. The visit also includes a Museo de la Salle tour and engagements with the brothers hosted by Br. Jimmy Dalumpines.