LINKAGES AND SCHOLARSHIP OFFICE

S.Y. 2022-2023 and 2023-2024

FUNCTIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Leads/assists in partnership and coordination efforts.
- Institutionalizes policies, standards, and guidelines on academic partnerships.
- Nurtures partnerships and networks.
- Provides inputs for the alignment of the curricular and co-curricular learning activities through partnerships and collaboration.
- Supports academic, research, and extension activities.
- Helps enhance university presence, prominence, and relevance.
- Supports academic mobility.

The Linkages and Scholarship Office (LSO) is generally mandated to establish partnerships with agencies, industries, and institutions of higher learning in support of the goals of the university, guided by its vision-mission. The unit provides a platform for exploratory discussions on all possible areas of cooperation, with academics as a priority. The Office is under the supervision of the Vice President for Internationalization and External Affairs (VPIEA) and is headed by a director, who directs the unit operations, and coordinators to handle inbound and outbound programs and activities, and internationalization programs in general.
