

SAMOT-SARING

HIRAYA @ DLSU-D

THE ART OF ORAL STORYTELLING BY KUYA JAY MENES

FREE
4 Days
Training, Coaching,
and Mentoring

July 12 and 14
July 19 and 21
Time: 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM
(with one-hour lunch break)

VENUE: AEA-Isagani R. Cruz
Reading Room
& MUSEO DE LA SALLE

29 July 2023
STORYTELLING CONCERT

JAY MENES is a multi-talented artist. Aside from being an experienced storyteller he does hosting, singing, directing, facilitating workshops, writing, acting, entrepreneurship, and an adventurer in life. He also teaches in theater, stage performances, and Culture-based Education. It has been his belief that anyone could be a storyteller coupled with passion and their own unique style.

TARGET PARTICIPANTS

DLSU-D students as well as DLSU-D employees and their children interested to become their own storytellers (Slots are on first come first serve basis)

- DAY 1
- Audition (Interested to be trained has to prepare a one-minute story of your choice either in Filipino or English)
 - Lecture on "Why Oral Storytelling and Its Importance"

- DAY 2
- Film Viewing – Lecture –Workshop
 - Great Storytellers in Asia and America
 - The Oral Storytelling Career
 - Story Read Aloud and Listening
 - Coaching and feedbacking
 - Re-Reading again with the suggestions
 - Run through the group telling presentation

- DAY 3
- Workshop
 - Movement exercise
 - Voice exercise
 - Putting the markers and blockings

- DAY 4
- Final Workshop
 - Rehearsal for the storytelling concert

- DAY 5
- Storytelling Concert

Register here: <https://bit.ly/TAOSDLSUD>

Storyhouse Philippines (est. 2011) is an open organization that welcomes anyone interested in oral storytelling, whether a teller, listener, beginner, or professional. We are actively bringing likeminded people together to enjoy, discuss and practice the art of storytelling.