

PRAYER FOR THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF LAUDATO SI'

God of all creation, source of everlasting life, we praise and thank you for giving us the world to live in. We are grateful for the prophetic witness of Pope Francis, Your faithful servant, who became Your voice for us, calling us to hear and respond to the cry of the Earth and the cry of the poor.

Ten years ago, through Laudato Si', You gently opened our hearts to see the world not as a resource to exploit, but as a sacred gift to protect and cherish.

Today, as we remember and hear this call. We recall the voices that have been ignored for too long, the poor and marginalized, the stripped bare lands, the poisoned waters, and the air thick with harm.

May we hear their cry, Lord, and respond with humility and love. Give us the courage to change what must be changed: Habits of waste, patterns of greed, and systems of injustice. Plant in us the resolve to live simply, to act justly, and to care tenderly for the Earth and one another.

As we celebrate the 10th anniversary of Laudato Si, may we be inspired to act and transform our hearts in carrying this call forward, becoming signs of hope in a world longing to breathe again. May our love for creation always reflect our love for You, compassionate and merciful God. Amen.
