

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

OVPGEER

Report

December 2024

DLSU-D RECEIVED TWO INTERNATIONALIZATION AWARDS FROM CHED

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) has been honored by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) Region IV-A as one of the performing institutions in Internationalization. This prestigious recognition highlights the university's commitment to fostering global engagement and excellence in education. The awards, Best in Student Recognition of IZN Efforts and One of the Top Five HEIs in Internationalization were received by Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI, FSC, President of DLSU-D, during a ceremony held at Lyceum of the Philippines University in General Trias City. The event gathered presidents and representatives from leading academic institutions in the region to celebrate achievements in higher education. The recognition underscores DLSU-D's efforts to establish strong international linkages, promote cross-cultural exchanges, and provide globally competitive programs. Through initiatives such as student and faculty mobility, international academic partnerships, and research collaborations, the university continues to empower its community to thrive in an interconnected world. "This recognition is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our administrators, faculty, staff, and students who continue to make internationalization a core part of our identity," said Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI, FSC. "As Lasallians, we remain committed to creating meaningful global opportunities while staying true to our mission of quality education for all." DLSU-D's recognition as one of the top-performing institutions in internationalization solidifies its position as a leader in shaping globally minded graduates who are prepared to meet the challenges of the 21st century.

DLSU-D Scholarship Unit Hosts First SPREAD LEGACY NIGHT: A Celebration of Giving Back

Dasmariñas, Cavite – The Scholarship Unit of De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), under the leadership of Dr. May Mojica, held its first-ever SPREAD LEGACY NIGHT on December 14, 2024, a heartfelt dinner-for-a-cause event aimed at supporting the university's scholars.

The memorable evening was able to raise around Php. 200,000.00, brought together former scholars and alumni who once benefited from the university's scholarship programs, celebrating the spirit of gratitude and giving back to the community. Attendees were treated to a meaningful program highlighting the Scholarship Unit's milestones and the transformative impact of the scholarships on students' lives since the unit's establishment in 1988.

Dr. Mojica delivered an inspiring message, emphasizing the importance of paying it forward and the enduring legacy of helping others achieve their dreams. "The SPREAD LEGACY NIGHT is more than a fundraising initiative; it's a celebration of the community we've built and a testament to the power of education in transforming lives," she shared.

The event showcased the Scholarship Unit's historical journey, from its humble beginnings to becoming a vital lifeline for hundreds of deserving students. Alumni speakers also shared their success stories, inspiring the audience with personal accounts of how the scholarship program opened doors to opportunities they once thought unattainable.

Proceeds from the dinner will directly benefit current and future scholars, ensuring that the university continues its mission to provide quality education to students from diverse backgrounds.

SPREAD LEGACY NIGHT not only highlighted the achievements of the past but also reinforced the commitment of the DLSU-D community to build a brighter future for all.

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

The International Development Studies (IDS) program of De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), in collaboration with the Philippine Academic Consortium for Latin American Studies (PACLAS), kicked off the Lasallian Advocacy and Development Summit on December 4. This three-day event, held at the ADG Reception Hall, aims to foster deeper understanding of diplomatic relations and global partnerships among students and participants.

The summit, running until December 6, brings together key figures in diplomacy and international relations. Distinguished speakers include Assistant Secretary Jose Victor Gonzaga from the Department of Foreign Affairs' Office of American Affairs and esteemed members of the Diplomatic Corps:

- Fabricio Sordoni, Representative from Argentina
- Ambassador Gilberto Fonseca Guimaraes de Moura, Brazil
- Deputy Head Mission Pedro Gonzalez, Chile

The summit seeks to equip students with insights into diplomatic relations, fostering dialogue on pressing global issues and regional cooperation. It also highlights the importance of strengthening ties between the Philippines and Latin American nations through academic and cultural exchanges.

The event aligns with DLSU-D's mission to produce globally competitive individuals who are also advocates for social transformation and inclusive development. The Lasallian Advocacy and Development Summit reflects the growing role of academic institutions in bridging nations and nurturing future leaders in diplomacy and global governance.

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) continues to make strides in its commitment to sustainability and health as it officially became an associate member of the ASEAN University Network-Health Promotion Network (AUN-HPN). DLSU-D President Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI FSC and Dr. George Francisco, Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations formally received the certificate of associate membership during a ceremony held at Hilton Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand on December 3, 2024. The certification was handed by the AUN HPN Executive Director Dr. Thunwadee Suksaroj.

The prestigious membership is a recognition of DLSU-D's status as a leader in health promotion and sustainability. The university stands as the top institution in the Philippines in fostering a sustainable campus environment, aligning with AUN-HPN's mission to advance health and wellness across higher education institutions in the ASEAN region. In addition to this, DLSU-D's best practices have been exhibited during the two-day conference in Bangkok.

The AUN-HPN membership places DLSU-D alongside esteemed institutions such as Mahidol University, King Mongkut University, National University of Singapore, University of Airlangga, University of Malaya, Chulalongkorn University, and Universiti Brunei Darussalam, among others.

In a significant step toward fostering international collaboration, Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI FSC and Dr. George Francisco met with Br. John Pongpat of La Salle Bangkok to discuss potential partnerships for student internship and faculty mobility programs. This initiative focuses on strengthening academic ties and enhancing professional opportunities for both students and educators.

The meeting centered on key areas of collaboration between the College of Education and the Languages and Literature Department. Discussions included sending students and English language specialists to conduct specialized training in English language teaching. This initiative aims to enhance the pedagogical skills of educators and improve English proficiency among learners in La Salle Bangkok.

The proposed programs are set to launch in 2025, marking the beginning of a fruitful partnership aimed at enriching the academic and cultural experiences of students and faculty from both institutions.

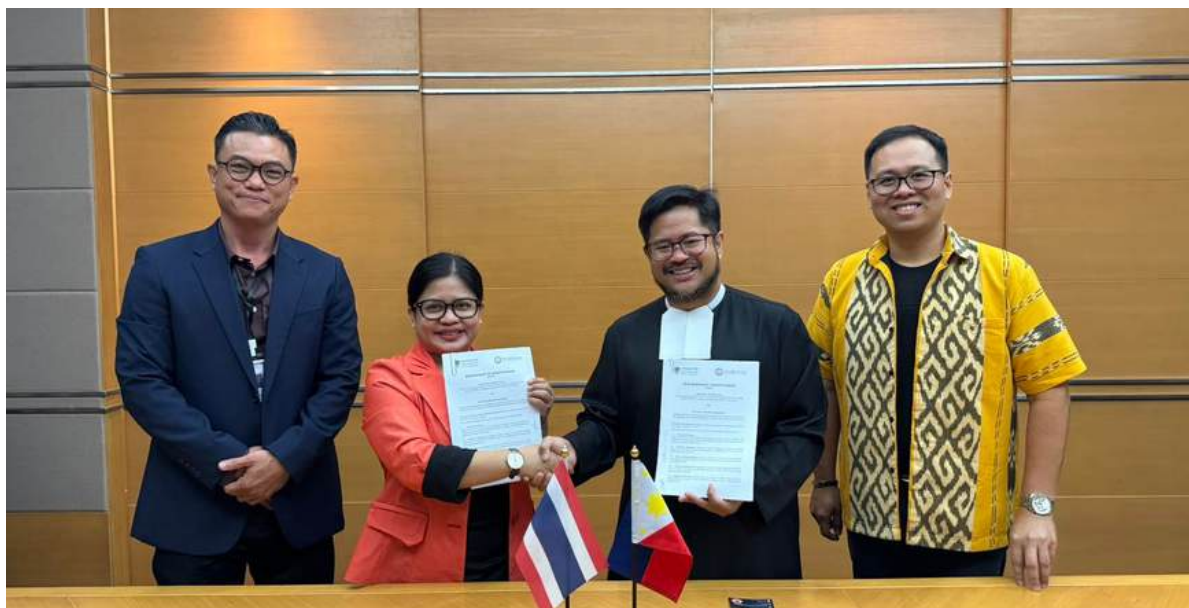

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) President Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI FSC and Shinawatra University President Assoc. Prof. Zhou Fei formalized a groundbreaking partnership by signing a memorandum of understanding (MOU) at the Shinawatra University campus in Thailand.

The MOU marks a significant step toward strengthening collaboration between the two institutions, with a focus on key areas such as internationalization, academic mobility, and research. The agreement is expected to provide opportunities for student and faculty exchanges, joint research initiatives, and other collaborative projects aimed at fostering global engagement.

Joining the signing ceremony was DLSU-D's Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations, Dr. George Francisco, who emphasized the importance of the partnership in broadening the university's global reach.

The partnership aligns with both institutions' missions of fostering innovation, cultural exchange, and academic excellence on a global scale.

In a bid to provide exceptional international training opportunities for future educators, De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) held a significant meeting with Ruamrudee International School (RIS) in Bangkok.

The meeting was attended by DLSU-D President Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI, FSC, Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations Dr. George Francisco, and Fr. Jittapol Plangklang of RIS. Discussions centered on enhancing the teaching internship program for DLSU-D's College of Education students.

This initiative aims to immerse student-teachers in a globally competitive learning environment, allowing them to gain hands-on experience and cultural exposure at one of Thailand's leading international schools.

Br. Sockie emphasized the importance of fostering global partnerships that enrich students' academic and professional growth. "Providing our future educators with international training opportunities is a testament to our commitment to producing globally competent teachers," he said.

Fr. Jittapol expressed his enthusiasm for the collaboration, noting that the program aligns with RIS's mission to promote quality education and intercultural exchange.

Dr. Francisco highlighted the broader vision of DLSU-D in strengthening its global engagement programs. "This partnership is a step forward in equipping our student-teachers with the skills and perspectives needed to thrive in an interconnected world," he stated.

The teaching internship program is set to begin in the coming semesters, offering students a transformative experience and further solidifying DLSU-D's role as a leader in international education.

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) gathered its partner communities and agencies last December 12 in a capacity building and year-end gathering entitled, "Juan Community, Juan Christmas."

Dr. Jefferson Buenviaje from the College of Tourism and Hospitality Management led a seminar session on events management. During the afternoon program, Dr. Maria Theresa Gochuico gave an orientation on the Quality Education Through Service and Transformation or QUEST, the Service Learning program of LCDC.

Dr. George Francisco, Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations, also graced the event and gave a welcome message.

The students from St. Joseph Institute International School (SJIS) had the privilege of visiting the Santuario de La Salle at De La Salle University in Biñan City. The students were warmly welcomed by Mr. Gerson Garcia, a representative from the Lasallian Mission Office, who introduced them to importance of the historical and spiritual landmark.

While, the guided tour by Mr. Xavier Apostol, the Santuario Ministry Coordinator also included the opportunity to admire the 48-bell carillon tower, an iconic symbol of the Lasallian faith and tradition.

This visit gave the students the chance to connect with the core values of the De La Salle educational mission, which would hopefully strengthening their understanding and appreciation of the Lasallian identity.

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

A delegation from La Salle Barcelona, led by its president, Dr. Josep Santos, paid a visit to De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) to fortify the partnership between the two institutions.

The delegation was warmly received by DLSU-D representatives, including Br. Dan Sanding FSC, Dr. George Francisco, and Ms. Mary Ann Salvador.

The visit marks a significant step in fostering deeper collaboration in academic programs, research initiatives, and cultural exchanges. Discussions focused on developing joint activities, student mobility programs, and faculty development opportunities to enhance the global perspective of both institutions.

Dr. Josep Santos expressed his gratitude for the warm reception and emphasized the importance of leveraging shared expertise to address global challenges. "By working together, we can create more innovative and meaningful programs for our students and faculty," he stated.

This collaborative effort is expected to pave the way for transformative initiatives that will benefit both institutions and the Lasallian community at large.

Students from St. Joseph Institute International School (SJIS) in Malaysia recently held a meaningful mission and cultural engagement with the residents of Bahay Tuluyan Dasmariñas, fostering cultural exchange and deepening the Lasallian spirit of service.

Facilitated by the Lasallian Community Development Center, the day-long event was filled with activities designed to promote interaction, dialogue, and socialization between the students and the residents. Through shared experiences and conversations, the participants aimed to cultivate mutual understanding and create lasting connections. The initiative not only allowed the students to immerse themselves in Filipino culture but also provided an opportunity to reflect on the values of compassion, service, and community-building.

Following the engagement at Bahay Tuluyan, the group visited Museo de La Salle, a cultural gem showcasing the 19th-century lifestyle of Filipinos. The museum tour offered the students an insightful glimpse into the rich heritage and traditions of the Philippines, adding depth to their cultural experience.

The program exemplifies the commitment of SJIS to fostering global citizenship and the Lasallian mission of faith, service, and community. By bridging cultural divides and creating shared moments of learning, the students left an indelible mark on the community while gaining valuable lessons they can carry forward in their own lives.

As the event concluded, both the residents and the students expressed gratitude for the meaningful interactions and the cultural insights gained throughout the day.

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

De La Salle University Dasmariñas formalized its partnership through a Memorandum of Agreement with the Angat Buhay Foundation, Department of Education City Schools Division of Dasmariñas and General Trias, King Solomon Foundation, and the Office of BM Kirby Salazar for the "Bayan Ko, Titser Ko Program."

The signing ceremony, held at the Museo ng Pag-Asa in Quezon City, marks a significant step towards promoting literacy and education. This collaboration underscores the dedication of volunteer teachers from the College of Education in empowering local communities by providing quality literacy education to schools in Dasmariñas and General Trias.

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) President Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI, FSC, warmly received students and faculty from St. Joseph Institution International School (SJIIS) as they embarked on a week-long cultural and Lasallian camp at the university. The program, designed to deepen participants' understanding of Lasallian values and foster cultural exchange, began with a welcome ceremony graced by notable guests, including Br. Butch Alcudia, FSC, and Norjufri Edrus, Deputy Chief of Mission of the Malaysian Embassy in Manila.

The camp's activities include immersive cultural experiences, workshops, and interactions with DLSU-D students and faculty to build a stronger sense of global Lasallian solidarity. Participants will also visit key Lasallian sites in the region to enrich their understanding of the Lasallian heritage.

Deputy Chief of Mission Norjufri Edrus commended the collaboration between DLSU-D and SJIIS, underscoring the value of educational exchanges in fostering unity among diverse communities.

The cultural and Lasallian camp reflects DLSU-D's commitment to its mission of holistic education and global partnership, further strengthening ties among Lasallian schools in the Asia-Pacific region.

Diana Loera Rodriguez, the associate director of the International Association of Lasallian Universities (IALU) and Br. Andres, President of a La Salle institution in Mexico were warmly welcomed by De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) President Br. Sockie de la Rosa VI, FSC, during her recent visit to the campus.

Rodriguez's visit aimed to deepen the collaboration between DLSU-D and the global Lasallian network. During her time at the university, she engaged in productive meetings with key offices, including the Linkages and Scholarship Office, the University Student Government, and the Office of the President.

A key highlight of the visit was the discussion of opportunities for mobility programs and leadership training, which aim to enhance the global exposure and skills of students, faculty, and administrators. These initiatives align with DLSU-D's vision of producing globally competent Lasallian leaders committed to excellence and service.

Br. Sockie de la Rosa expressed gratitude for Rodriguez's visit, noting its significance in strengthening international partnerships. "This visit reaffirms our commitment to fostering a culture of collaboration and innovation across the global Lasallian community," he shared.

Rodriguez lauded DLSU-D's dedication to empowering its community through global opportunities, emphasizing the importance of these programs in building a robust network of Lasallian institutions.

The visit underscores DLSU-D's proactive engagement in international initiatives, further solidifying its role as a vital contributor to the Lasallian mission worldwide.

World AIDS Day 2024 Awareness Campaign: A Continuous Call for Collective Action!

DLSU-D marked World AIDS Day last December 4 with a sincere effort to spread awareness and nurture solidarity. Red ribbons, a global symbol of hope, support, and the fight against HIV and AIDS, have been distributed on campus by SERVE volunteers and the faculty and students of the Basic Education Division.

Highlights of the Event:

Over 400 red ribbons distributed to raise awareness and show support for individuals living with HIV. Volunteers engaged with community members, sharing knowledge and encouraging conversations about HIV prevention and the importance of ending the stigma brought by HIV scare. The community wore red shirts and tying red ribbons as a sign of unity.

This event is a reminder of the power of education, compassion, and collective action. A big thank you to our amazing student volunteers and everyone who participated in making this day meaningful. Let's continue to educate, advocate, and support each other in the fight against HIV and AIDS.

A Heartwarming Christmas Celebration Trade Bazaar continues to fire up!

Join us for a festive and meaningful experience at the Br. Gus Boquer Heritage Complex until December 6, 2024. This special event is a wonderful opportunity to shop, eat and enjoy the bazaar with loved ones, friends, classmates and spread the joy of the Christmas season.

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

As the Christmas season approaches, the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) conducted an outreach Christmas fellowship with the HaPag ni Juan Project beneficiaries to share love and kindness to 19 street dwellers and 17 families in street situations composed of 43 individuals from the City of Dasmariñas. Furthermore, as a Christmas outreach activity, this event is dubbed as "LOVELINK" which means Linking with Others in Vulnerable Environment through Loving Interactions, Needs-assessments, and Kick-off of the HaPag ni Juan Project.

Therefore, this Christmas fellowship is not just a simple act of bringing joy and support to street dwellers and families in street situations, but also laying the foundation for a long-term development program. By conducting a simple needs-assessment as part of the activity, a comprehensive plan can be designed towards the development of a long-term program that would respond to the needs of street dwellers and uplift their living conditions.

Moreover, this Christmas fellowship is also aligned with the key principles of the Social Teaching of Church on Life and Dignity of the Human Person, Call to Family, Community, and Participation, and Solidarity.

The Christmas fellowship was graced by the presence and inspirational messages of Dr. Christian George Francisco, Vice President of Global Engagements and External Relations, Dr. Grace Red, LCDC Director, and Bro. Joikul Egbertus Bin Sevelinus, FSC.

Thank you to the social workers of the City of Dasmariñas Social Welfare and Development Office who accompanied the guest participants of the Christmas Fellowship.

Thank you also to the Religious Education students for their family food pack donations.

Your Gift, Their Smile" | Gift-Giving Activity

On December 15, 2024, the DLSU-D College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT), in partnership with the UAP Manila Nakpil Chapter and the Philippine Institute of Architecture (PIA), brought joy and hope to the residents of Bukal ng Kapayapaan, Home for Abandoned Children in Trece Martires City, Cavite through their heartfelt gift-giving activity entitled "Your Gift, Their Smile".

The program began with a prayer and opening messages delivered by the presidents of the PIA and UAP Manila Nakpil Chapter, setting the tone for an afternoon of generosity and celebration.

Highlights of the Event:

Symbolic Gift-Giving

Special performances from members of PIA, UAP Manila Nakpil Chapter, and the talented residents of Bukal ng Kapayapaan

As an expression of gratitude, the Lasallian Community Development Center presented gifts to its partner communities and agencies during the second part of the "Juan Community, Juan Christmas" event conducted last December 12. During the socialization, everyone enjoyed the fun games, exciting prizes, and exchanged gifts - creating networks amongst our partners!

LCDC would like to thank our ever supportive partners as they are instruments for us to pursue our Lasallian mission. We are looking forward to more partnerships in the years to come!

The De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), through the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), shared its expertise to the Sanggunian Kabatan (SK) of Barangay H-2 in Dasmariñas City, Cavite by conducting a First-Aid Training and Seminar for its youth sector. The seminar-training aimed at strengthening and capacitating the "Katipunan ng Kabataan" with essential life-saving skills that enhance safety and disaster preparedness by equipping them with practical knowledge and skills regarding Basic First-Aid response to emergencies. Ms. Jhelyn Relopez, LCDC faculty, conducted the seminar-training with the assistance of Mr. Jhoven Paulite.

RESOURCE GENERATION REPORT

FOR THE MONTH OF DECEMBER 2024

December 2024	Cash	In-Kind	Total
Aklatang Emilio Aguinaldo - IRC		₱ 642,880.00	₱ 642,880.00
Bahay Pag-Asa		₱ 41,380.25	₱ 41,380.25
Lasallian Community Development Center		₱ 29,436.25	₱ 29,436.25
Piso Para sa Iskolar Coinbank	₱ 9,510.50		₱ 9,510.50
SPREAD Legacy Night	₱ 202,100.00		₱ 202,100.00
PaskoJuan: Our Heart Beat as One	₱ 103,000.00	₱ 509,202.00	₱ 612,202.00
Others - Campus Ministry Office		₱ 6,258.00	₱ 6,258.00
Others - Donation Student Scholarship Program	₱ 4,746.00		₱ 4,746.00
Others - DLSU-D Merchandise	₱ 78,900.00		₱ 78,900.00
GRAND TOTAL	₱ 398,256.50	₱ 1,229,156.50	₱ 1,627,413.00

In December 2024, various initiatives across the university successfully generated substantial resources to support institutional projects and community programs. The month witnessed an outstanding collaboration between different offices, partners, and stakeholders, culminating in a total collection of ₱1,627,413.00, composed of ₱398,256.50 in cash and ₱1,229,156.50 in-kind donations.

The efforts in December 2024 highlight the university's strong commitment to resource generation and community engagement. The diverse initiatives, ranging from academic resource support to festive fundraising events, reflect a shared dedication to the university's mission and vision.

These achievements underscore the importance of collective action and generosity, ensuring that institutional goals and community service initiatives are sustainably realized.

LIST OF DONORS FOR SPREAD LEGACY NIGHT

December 14, 2024

Abesamis-Co, Shalla	Domingo, Emmanuel	Rogador, Marissa
Abiador, Maria Luisa	Epia, Angeline	Rosas, Rizalyn
Abiador, Rianne	Escoto, Mary Ann	Rostata, Criselle Mae
Adsuara, Andre Gere	Ferolino-Garcia, Mary Ann	Rubio, Andrea Nicole
Agojo, Mary Christine	Forca, Monica	Salibay, Dr. Cristina
Alarcon, Domingo	Francisco, Christian George	Saquiton, Ruby M
Amoncio, Ma. Perpetua	Gacusana, Kate Jelian	Tabajunda, Danica
Aranzaso, Ray Vincent	Gacusana, Linda Lou	Tadena, Melody
Baetiong, Noreen	Garilva, Michelle	Tana-Caguaia, Krishna
Ballesteros, Rachelle	Gementiza, Sonia	Teodoro, Crystal Jane
Barrameda, Reine	Genova, Miel	Ternate, Matthew
Barrera, Lanie	Guerrero, Cecille	Tobias, Kate
Barte, Nenita	Javier, Danna Claire	Toledo, Marinesa
Bejarin, Lalaine	Lising, John Christian	Tolentino, Charles Andrew
Belmonte, Mary Grace	Loyola, Marc Zyus	Trinanes, Jane
Bernabe, Charmaine	Macaraeg, Regyn	Verdadero, Abegail C
Bico, Kate Erica	Maestro, Mark Sherwin	Vergara, Atty. Ahren
Calventas, Michelle	Masil, Kathlyn Ann	Vidal, John
Canaya, Poala Anne Joyce	Mataya, Kristien Lowela	Yapo, Michael
Cancel, Kristine Bernadette	Mazo, Rommel	Zamora, Arvin
Candalla, Eliseo	Mendez, Jhoana
Candol, Joanna Marie	Montoya, Kristia Camille
Caparas, Jerico	Monzon, Melissa Adona
Capili, Jervie	Moralidad, Judea Ann
Carandang, Jaselee	Naje, Sherilyn
Castro, Maureen	Narzabal, Charlayne
Castro, Suzette	Ordonez, Jessa Mae
Charles Andrew Tolentino	Pagadora, Clarris
Clemente, Geraldyn	Paredes, Regyn
Crescini, Maria Theresa	Patricio, James
Cresenscio, Jeremy	Ramirez, Michael Nino
Critica, Marie Joy	Ramores, Kaith Marjorie
Destura, Kristine	Reyes, Bianca Ysabelle
Domingo, Emmanuel	Reyes, Kohlène

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our donors who have made

December 2024 a month of giving and hope.

LIST OF DONORS FOR PASKOJUAN

December 20, 2024

CompuTechnologies Corporation	The Hidden Jen Condo at Twinlakes Tagaytay
EBSCO	POLCA of DLSU-D Cavite
Arwin Camantigue Steel, Glass and Aluminum Works	Cafe Museo
KAYA Machineries and Industrial Supplies	De La Salle Alumni Association Inc.
August Printing Services	110 Consultants Inc.
Eagleson Enterprises	Teodoro Construction Corporation
Velca Equipment and Engineered Products, Inc.	Eastworld Sales Philippines Inc.
BBNE Enterprises	1Rotary Trading Corporation
Heroes Barbers - Ayala Malls Vermosa	O&J Global Trading
Nailandia - Ayala Malls Vermosa	GiftedArts.Ph Printing Services
Coronacion Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning Services	All Around Services & Merchandising Corporation
Don Pacundo Sportswear	Philippine Duplicators Inc.
MESCO Inc.	SPM Aquino Ilano Garcia
Tadeos Scientific Industries OPC	Productivity Technologies Services Inc.
Mega Source Scientific Supplies	Chef Alde's
Torreno Hardware & Constructions Supply	TLC Food Hubate Rica's Bacsilog
Abacast Travel Inc.	Mars Laboratory Instruments Center
F&D de Jesus Inc.	Forefront Book Co. Inc
Super Aire Refrigeration and Contractors Inc.	Darlynn's Catering
Jefcee's	Computrends Systems Technology Inc.
Belview	Cover and Pages Corporation
E.V.Y. Construction and Development Corporation	Secur-A-Print Inc.
Converge ICT	Fastbooks Educational Supply Inc.
McChillers Beverages Inc.	Greserr Contractors and Builders Inc.
Villtek Printers Inc.	Master Siomai & Potato Corner
YANA Chemodities Inc.	Asian Psychological Services and Assessment Inc.
JDM Glass and Aluminum	CD Books International Inc.
Caparal Appliances	Ms. Divine Delos Reyes
Dasma Industrial Tools Supply	SPM Kiko Barzaga
Colorwave Printing Service	Hon. Mayor Jennifer Austria-Barzaga
Likhang Maragondon Native Products Trading	THROB Pro Lights and Sounds
Desabelle Tailoring Shop	Kalabogue
VA Industrial Electrical Services	Ms. Franchesca Alon
Macrologic Deversified Technologies Inc.	Mr. Julius Tibayan - El Cocinado
Amity Printing Press
Commerce Asia Inc.
Golden Books Services Inc.

*We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our donors who have made
December 2024 a month of giving and hope.*

LIST OF VARIOUS DONORS

December 2024

DLSU-D Development Cooperative
Maed Guidance and Counseling
University of the Philippines-BGC
Visual and Performing Arts Group

POLCA

CLASS of BIT11

Class of CEE24

ENR22 – GROUP NO. 3

ENR22 - GROUP NO. 2

BOM23

ECE21 - REED003

CECILLE DIMAANO

Lareine Ambagan,

Rosel Buenaventura,

Chloeibel Cabatu-an,

Krishna Catallo,

Kesha Dalanon,

Leiden Pandiño,

Angel Pangilinan,
Charles Saputil,S
Samantha Villanueva
COM21 - REED003
CEE11 GROUP 3

PSY23

MEB21

MEB21

MEB21

COM21

BOM23

Mr. Jose Ritche Bongcaromn

Richeelle Cruz

BOM21

BOM21

BOM23

COM21

MEE22

Calamba Medical Society

*We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our donors who have made
December 2024 a month of giving and hope.*

De La Salle University
D A S M A R I Ñ A S

Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement & External Relations

Season's Greetings!

As we celebrate this joyous season, we extend our warmest wishes to you and your loved ones. May this time of giving and gratitude fill your hearts with peace, love, and hope.

Thank you for being part of our journey and for your unwavering support of our initiatives. Your generosity and partnership inspire us to continue making a difference in the lives of many.

May the spirit of Christmas bring you renewed joy, and may the New Year be filled with abundant blessings and success.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

With gratitude and cheer,
The OVPGEER Family