DLSU-D hosts Saint Mary's College of California for Lasallian Immersion

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) welcomed a student delegation from Saint Mary's College of California (SMC) on January 3, 2026, further solidifying international cooperation within the global Lasallian network.

The delegation, led by Philip Goodwin, SMC Associate Director of Alumni Engagement and Adjunct Assistant Professor, included junior and senior students from various disciplines. Coordinated by the OVPGEER, the visit provided a comprehensive experience of the Filipino Lasallian identity through a curated itinerary of heritage and service.

The visit commenced with a tour of the DLSU-D campus and the Museo De La Salle, showcasing the University's sustainable environment and Philippine lifestyle traditions. Moving from heritage to heart, the students participated in a pivotal immersion at Bahay Pag-asa, where they witnessed firsthand the University's commitment to social justice and transformative education for youth. The journey then took a spiritual turn as the delegates traveled to the Santuario de La Salle in Biñan, Laguna, to reflect on their shared mission at the sacred site dedicated to the Universal Patron of Teachers. The immersion concluded with a formal dinner and socials at the Residencia, hosted by the De La Salle Brothers-Dasmariñas, fostering deep personal and professional bonds between the sister institutions.

LSEG Welcomes New Batch of DLSU-D Scholarship Grantees

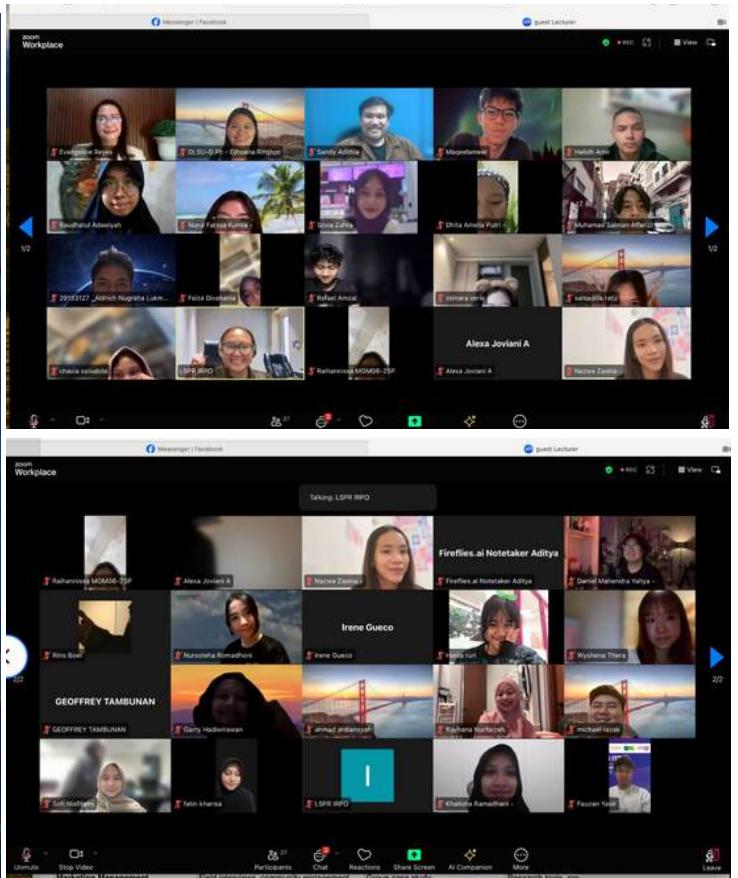

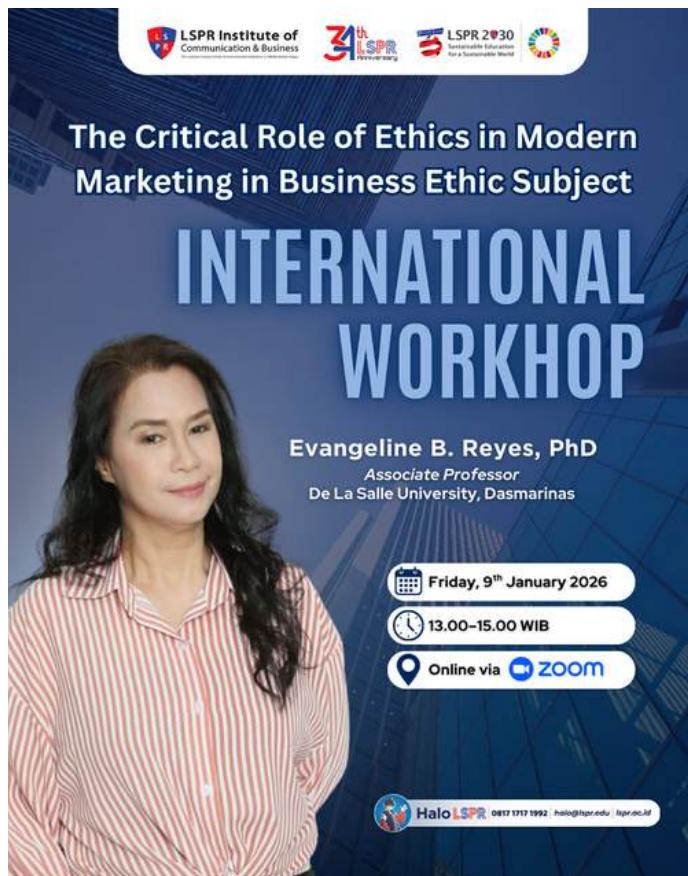

Another batch of scholars from De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) has officially been welcomed into the London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG) University Program for AY 2025-2026. A kick-off ceremony was held today to formally celebrate the 14 outstanding students from Accountancy, Economics, Business and Operations Management, Computer Science, Marketing, and Advertising who successfully navigated LSEG's rigorous global screening process.

The kick-off activity featured an immersive facility tour and a high-level meet-and-greet with LSEG country heads and managers. Scholars were also introduced to their respective team leads and briefed on the global work standards and assignments they will undertake starting mid-January.

Representatives from DLSU-D were also present to show their support, including Ms. Mary May Eulogio, Chair of the Accountancy Department; Dr. Irene Gueco from the Linkages and Scholarship Office; and Ms. Maica Panganiban from the Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations.

This valuable partnership between DLSU-D and global industry leaders like LSEG underscores the university's commitment to providing students with world-class opportunities that enhance their competitiveness in their respective fields.

DLSU-D Marketing Faculty Leads Virtual Exchange with LSPR Indonesia

College of Business Administration and Accountancy's Marketing Department faculty, Dr. Evangeline Reyes, successfully conducted a Virtual Faculty Exchange with the London School of Public Relations (LSPR) Institute of Communication & Business on January 9, 2026. Addressing students from the LSPR Jakarta Campus, Dr. Reyes delivered a lecture titled "The Critical Role of Ethics in Modern Marketing" as part of their Business Ethics course.

The session facilitated a cross-border dialogue on the vital intersection of ethical frameworks and global marketing strategies, highlighting the importance of integrity in the modern corporate landscape.

The initiative was coordinated through Ninis Marhaenis M.I.Kom, LSPR's Manager of International Relations and Deputy Managing Director of the ASEAN PR Network. This partnership between DLSU-D and LSPR, provide both faculty and students with valuable opportunities for intercultural learning and professional growth.

First in the Ph: DLSU-D Hosts Victoria University Delegation for Philippine Legal Immersion

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) is hosting the Victoria University (VU) Study Abroad Program, welcoming a delegation of 26 Australian law students.

Running from January 12–24, 2026, the program offers an intensive immersion into the Philippine legal system and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR).

The delegation is led by Atty. Ryan Dave Berioso, a Law Lecturer at VU and Solicitor of the High Court of Australia, and Pam Christou, the Legal Placements Coordinator at Victoria University.

The academic itinerary features a rigorous series of lectures designed to provide a deep dive into the local legal landscape. The program commenced at the ADG Reception Hall with Dr. Maria Virginia Aguilar, providing the historical and cultural context essential to understanding Philippine law.

The curriculum then shifts to the Centennial Hall for in-depth sessions with Judge Gil dela Banda, covering constitutional governance, the civil law framework, and the litigation process. To provide a comparative perspective on modern legal practice, the program also includes specialized modules on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) led by Atty. Ryan Berioso (Australia) and Atty. Irene Alogoc (Philippines), an analysis of International Commercial Arbitration by Atty. Jude Marvel, concluding with commercial law by Atty. Roi. Br. Inigo Riola FSC, EdD, President of DLSU-D, formally welcomed the delegation, emphasizing the importance of cross-border academic exchange. This sentiment was echoed by Atty. Berioso, who described the program as a vital "bridge" between the two legal jurisdictions.

"This program reflects something very important to us as a Lasallian university," shared Br. Inigo Riola. "We believe deeply in building relationships and global connections, not only for academic exchange but also for forming responsible global citizens. Partnerships like this remind us that education today is no longer confined by borders. We learn best when we listen to one another and when we allow different contexts and traditions to widen and challenge our perspectives."

Deep Dive into the PH Culture, Justice System

Law students from Victoria University, Australia, who are in the country for an immersion into the Philippine legal system, gained insight into the Philippines' political history and governance at Bahay Ugnayan (Malacañang Heritage Museum) and the Teus Mansion. They also went to the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals and were briefed on the Philippine Judicial process.

Welcoming Our Inbound Exchange Student from Vietnam

Nguyen Thi Ngoc Linh, a BS Biology student from Hanoi National University of Education, Vietnam, joins De La Salle University-Dasmariñas under the Biological Science Department, College of Science, as part of the international exchange program.

IDS Students Complete Winter Program at Meijo University

3rd year B.A. in International Development Studies program students under the College of Liberal Arts and Communication (CLAC) successfully completed the Meijo University Winter Program, held from January 6 to 24, 2026. This marks the second batch of outbound DLSU-D students to participate in the program. The participants—Jose Roberto Baldevarona, Javier Raphael Roco, Bea Louise Zacarias, and Kristine Borreros—represented the Social Science Department during the academic engagement in Japan.

Throughout the program, the students were immersed in Japanese studies, exploring the country's language, culture, history, and heritage through interactive learning, cultural exchanges, and hands-on activities alongside Meijo University students.

Victoria University Law Students Complete Immersive Law and ADR Program in the Philippines

DEPT. OF COMM.

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) successfully concluded a two-week study abroad program for 26 law students from Victoria University (VU), Australia, titled “Philippine Legal System and Alternative Dispute Resolution: A Comparative and Immersive Learning Program,” held from January 12 to 24, 2026.

The program concluded with a ceremony on January 23, 2026, at the ADG Reception Hall, marking the culmination of academic and cultural exchange between the two institutions. Dr. Nor Cachuela, DLSU-D Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations, opened the event and acknowledged the collaborative efforts behind the program.

Students engaged in lectures on civil law, litigation, and international commercial arbitration led by Judge Gil De La Banda and legal experts Atty. Ryan Dave Berioso, Atty. Irene Alogoc, Atty. Mary Jude Cantorias Marvel, and Atty. Roi Andrei Galang. The learning experience was further enriched through site visits to the Supreme Court of the Philippines, Court of Appeals, Malacañang Heritage Museum, and historical sites in Cavite and Manila.

Certificates of completion were awarded by Atty. Ryan Dave Berioso, in the presence of Pam Christou, VU Legal Placements Coordinator; Dr. Twinkle Amparo, DLSU-D Vice Provost for Academics; Dr. Sonia Gementiza, Chief Administrative Officer; and Atty. Dennis Maldo, Vice Dean of the College of Law.

In her remarks, Pam Christou noted that the program strengthened students' understanding of ADR and reinforced the partnership between Victoria University and DLSU-D. Dr. Sonia Gementiza closed the ceremony by affirming the institutions' continued collaboration.

DLSU-D Welcomes Marinduque State University Interns

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas formally welcomed interns from Marinduque State University (MarSU) as part of the latter's internship and practicum program. A total of nine students—seven from the BA English Language Studies program and two from BA Communication—were officially deployed to various academic and administrative units across the University. The students were accompanied by MarSU's Director for International Relations and Linkages.

The interns are assigned to the Office of the Vice President for Governance, Engagement, External Relations (OVPGEER), the Strategic Communications Office (SCO), the Language Learning Center (LLC), and the Basic Education Department (BED). Their placement aims to immerse them in real-world professional environments, allowing them to apply theoretical knowledge, gain practical skills, and complete the required duty hours for their practicum subject.

DLSU-D Welcomes Delegates from Providence University, Taiwan

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas warmly welcomed a delegation from Providence University, Taiwan, headed by Edward Chang of the College of Foreign Language and Literature. Organized by the Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations (VPGEER) and facilitated by the Linkages Office, the visit brought together faculty from the Basic Education Department and their Taiwanese counterparts, including graduate students from the Department of English Language, Literature and Linguistics and the Department of Spanish Language and Literature. The program featured institutional presentations that highlighted academic strengths and cultural identities, setting a collaborative tone for the engagement.

Kapag ang Malasakit ay Naging Tulay ng Pangarap

Naging makabuluhan at nakaaantig ang isinagawang Meet and Greet sa pagitan ng UTFI donors, De La Salle Philippines, at mga iskolar ng DLSU-D. Ang okasyon ay nagbigay-diin sa mga kuwento ng pag-asa, malasakit, at inspirasyon na nagpapalakas ng loob ng mga mag-aaral. Taos-pusong pasasalamat ang ipinaaabot ng DLSU-D sa mga donors at katuwang na institusyon sa kanilang patuloy na suporta sa paghubog ng kinabukasan ng mga iskolar.

Advancing Generosity Through Art: The 2025 Deco Plate Fundraising Exhibition

The Advancement and Alumni Relations Office (AARO) proudly supports the launch of the 2025 Deco Plate Fundraising Exhibition at Museo De La Salle, now in its third year. Opened on November 28, 2025, the exhibition highlights the transformative power of art in advancing generosity and mission-driven advocacy. In collaboration with the College of Liberal Arts and Communication (CLAC), the Languages and Literature Department, and the Aral Artists Community, the exhibition showcases hand-crafted porcelain plates that reflect creativity with purpose. Proceeds from the exhibit contribute to scholarship programs, learning resources, and literacy and reading initiatives, reinforcing DLSU D's commitment to holistic Lasallian formation and sustainable support for education.

FY 2025 PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT AND PLANNING EXERCISES

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) participated in the FY 2025 Performance Assessment and Planning Exercises held from January 14 to 16, 2026, at National University in Calamba City, Laguna. This involvement reaffirms the university's commitment to collaboration and meaningful partnerships.

The event was organized by the Department of Labor and Employment, Regional Office No. IV-A (CALABARZON), and the Public Employment Service Office Managers Association of the Philippines (PESOMAP) CALABARZON Chapter. It brought together key stakeholders focused on strengthening workforce development across the region.

Julius Tibayan, Director of the Advancement and Alumni Relations Office (AARO), represented DLSU-D and underscored the institution's drive to expand networks, enhance employability pathways, and foster impactful industry engagements. These initiatives foster a brighter and stronger future for Lasallian learners, alumni, and communities, fully aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals, particularly SDG 4 (Quality Education), SDG 8 (Decent Work and Economic Growth), and SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals).

DLSU-D IMPACT

“Industry Mechanism to Professional Access Through Career Transition”

Part of the AARO's 10-Point Agenda is to reinforce the university's commitment to ongoing collaboration with colleges in designing a structured framework that facilitates career pathways and enhances employment opportunities for students. The session/s included the internship coordinators of the following:

January 20, 2026 - College Information and Computer Studies (CICS)

January 21, 2026 - College of Criminal Justice Education (CCJE)

January 28, 2026 - College of Education (COE)

January 29, 2026 - College of Liberal Arts and Communication (CLAC)

CAREER PARTNERS OUTSOURCING

One La Salle Educational Foundation Inc. (St. Jamie Hilario School – De La Salle Bataan)

The De La Salle Dasmarinas Alumni Association, Inc. (DLSDAAI), in partnership with the Advancement and Alumni Relations Office (AARO), joined the celebration of the 20th Founding Anniversary of St. Jaime Hilario School – De La Salle Bataan with a Thanksgiving Mass and Benefit Luncheon. In a spirit of Lasallian solidarity, a ₱25,000 donation was formally turned over to support the school's cause, personally handed over by Mr. Julius Tibayan, Director, AARO. This gesture affirms our shared commitment to ensuring no La Salle school is left behind as we continue to strengthen our mission by working together as one Lasallian family.

LCDC Receives Book Donations for MALETA Project Through “Books for the Barrio” Initiative

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) successfully received assorted reading materials in support of the MALETA Project last January 14, 2026. The donation was made possible through coordination with Puntalaan Art Space and the Alitaptap Artists Community as part of their “Books for the Barrio” initiative.

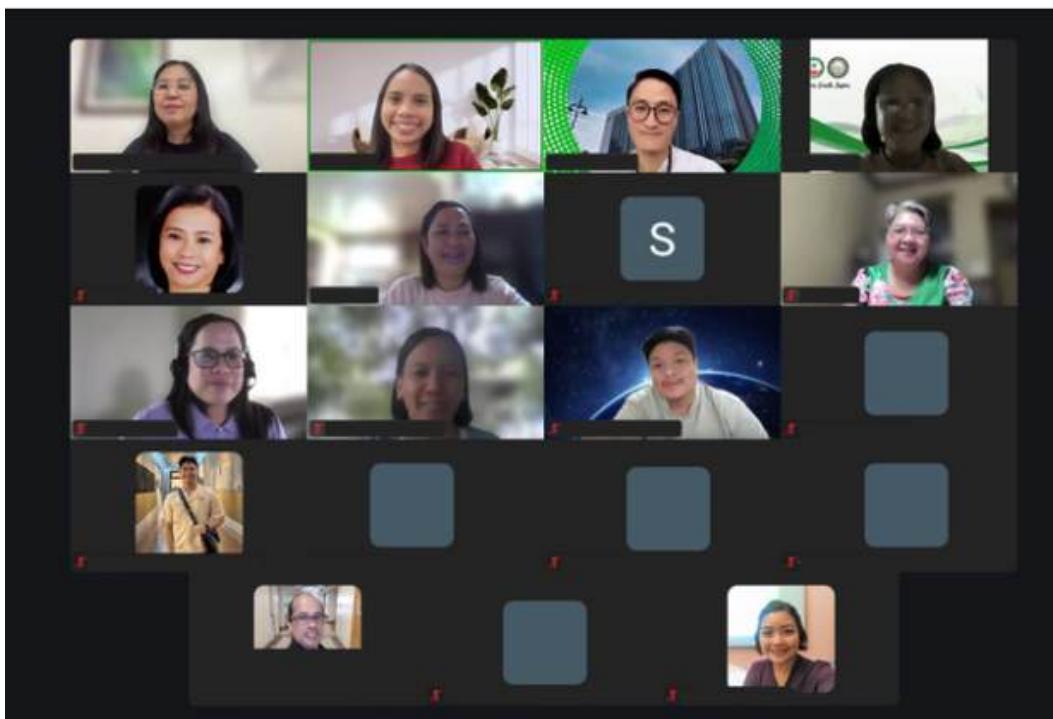

This meaningful contribution was donated by Ms. Nancy Harington, following a call for book donations facilitated by Alitaptap Café and the Alitaptap Artists Community. Through this initiative, individuals and partner organizations were encouraged to share pre-loved books to help promote literacy and learning in underserved communities.

The donated reading materials will be utilized under the MALETA Project, a collaborative initiative of the Museo De La Salle, Aklatang Emilio Aguinaldo, LCDC, and Languages and Literature Department. The project aims to provide accessible, age-appropriate, and engaging reading resources to children and communities with limited access to educational materials. The project also seeks to nurture a love for reading and support lifelong learning at the grassroots level.

This donation was coordinated by Ms. Mary Ann Salvador.

LSEED Conducts Online Social Entrepreneurship Training for DLSU-D Social Entrepreneurship Faculty Champions

De La Salle University - Dasmariñas brought together Social Entrepreneurship champions for a second virtual session titled "Training on Social Development Goals Localization through Social Entrepreneurship."

The session was held via Zoom from 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM, facilitated by Dr. Norby Salonga, Director of the Lasallian Social Enterprise for Economic Development (LSEED) Center at DLSU Manila. He was assisted by his Secretary, Ms. Ann Santiago. A total of 18 faculty members from various colleges and offices of DLSU-D were trained to serve as SE Champions.

The training aimed to foster collaboration in Social Entrepreneurship within DLSU-Dasmariñas. Moving forward, the trained faculty will promote and advocate for social entrepreneurship and sustainability among both internal and external stakeholders, driving efforts in cooperation-building, resource generation, and capacity development.

LCDC Participates in Agos ng Ugnayan: Interconnected Rivers, Interconnected Futures

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) took part in Agos ng Ugnayan: Interconnected Rivers, Interconnected Futures on January 16, 2026, at SK Hall, Nuestra Señora De Candelaria Parish.

Organized by the EcoWaste Coalition, the forum convened leaders, scientists, advocates, and community representatives for a timely dialogue on water, climate resilience, and shared stewardship.

The lectures include the "Characterization and Vulnerability Assessment of Silang River Watershed", "Evaluation of the Resiliency of the Silang-Santa Rosa Watershed", and "Climate Vulnerability and the Road to Eco-resilience".

An open forum followed, fostering meaningful exchange between speakers and participants, and strengthening collective commitment to safeguarding interconnected ecosystems and communities.

LCDC's involvement in Agos ng Ugnayan underscores its dedication to nurturing partnerships that protect our environment, empower communities, and inspire collective action for a sustainable tomorrow.

LCDC Joins Waste-Free Beginnings: A Stakeholders' Consultation

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) participated in Waste-Free Beginnings: A Stakeholders' Consultation held on January 21, 2026, at SK Hall, Nuestra Señora De Candelaria Parish.

Organized by LaKBay ni Juan of the Diocesan Shrine and Parish of Nuestra Señora de Candelaria, in collaboration with the EcoWaste Coalition and the Diocese of Imus Ministry on Ecology, the forum convened key stakeholders, partners, and advocates to address pressing concerns on solid waste management. The consultation aimed to strengthen collaboration among local government units, institutions, and community partners by sharing best practices, examining current waste management conditions, and advancing sustainable, inclusive, and data-driven initiatives.

Morning session featured lectures on the Solid Waste Management Report of Silang, food waste reduction strategies, composting methods, waste segregation, and biogas technology. In the afternoon, participants engaged in workshops designed to exchange experiences and formulate action plans for improved waste management practices.

Through its active participation, LCDC reaffirmed its commitment to promoting environmental stewardship and fostering partnerships that contribute to sustainable development in Cavite and beyond.

TULAYIN Phase 2 Reaches Alangyan-Mangyan Students

Last January 23, 2026, the College of Education (COED) and the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) crossed the waters to Naujan, Oriental Mindoro, for TULAYIN Phase 2: The Unifying Lasallian Advocacy for Young IPs in Need.

Building on a mission that started in 2023, the team from DLSU-D visited Brgy. Malvar to support 200 Alangyan-Mangyan students with much-needed school supplies. But this mission is about more than just materials; it's about sustainability and the dream of higher education.

While on-site, the team conducted a needs assessment and interviews with the school teachers and parents. The team currently exploring the transformative possibility of providing college scholarships for Mangyan learners who wish to pursue tertiary education at DLSU-D.

Leading the mission were Dr. Royce Salva (Professional Education Dept.), Dr. Evelyn "Beng" Obo (Professional Education Dept.), Ms. Geamph Hate (COED University Extension Committee Representative), and Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya (Program Officer, QUEST Program - LCDC)

Lingap Lasalyano: A Nominee for Most Outstanding Volunteer in DSWD Centers/ Residential Care Facilities

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), through its Lingap Lasalyano partnership with Bahay Tuluyan ng mga Bata (Home for the Girls), is once again honored to be nominated for the 2025 Regional PaNaTA Ko sa Bayan Awards of the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) IV-A CALABARZON.

As part of the nomination process, representatives from DSWD, led by Mr. Dionisio Dalusong, conducted a Level 2 Validation visit at De La Salle University-Dasmariñas on January 27, 2026.

The PaNaTA Ko sa Bayan Awards recognize individuals, groups, and organizations whose panata is to selflessly share their time, resources, and talents in service of disadvantaged sectors. The awards also seek to inspire continued collaboration and support for the programs and services of DSWD.

LCDC's nomination under the category "Most Outstanding Volunteer in DSWD Centers/Residential Care Facilities" is an affirmation of its sustained commitment to compassionate service and meaningful accompaniment of vulnerable communities.

The QUEST Program Team conducted a Service-Learning Orientation and Workshop

The Quality Education through Service and Transformation (QUEST) Program of the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), successfully conducted a service-learning orientation and workshop for selected faculty members of the College of Engineering and Architecture Technology (CEAT), fostering meaningful discussions on integrating service-learning into the curriculum/syllabus.

The session was led by Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya, Program Officer of QUEST, together with Project Officers Mr. Lorenzo Centino and Mr. Jhoven Paulite, who shared valuable insights on the QUEST-related frameworks and implementation guidelines. The event was also privileged to hear from Ms. Rosario "Cherry" Pareja, Director of De La Salle Bahay Pag-Asa Dasmariñas (DLSBPD), who presented the various service-learning opportunities available at DLSBPD. In addition, Ms. Mary Grace Virata, College Extension Head of CEAT, introduced "LIKHA", the proposed collegiate extension program for CEAT.

The orientation and workshop were attended by 14 CEAT faculty members, marking a significant step toward strengthening community engagement and service-learning integration.
