De La Salle Academy Yangon, Myanmar Inaugurates GED Learning Center, Deepening Partnership with DLSU-D

De La Salle Academy Yangon officially inaugurated its General Educational Development (GED) Learning Center today, marking a significant milestone in its burgeoning partnership with De La Salle University Dasmariñas (DLSU-D). The collaboration, which began in June 2024 through the LEAD and the former president of DLSU-D Br. Sockie de la Rosa, aims to provide comprehensive technical assistance to De La Salle Academy Yangon in establishing and developing its educational programs.

The inauguration ceremony was a testament to the strengthening ties between the two Lasallian institutions. Key figures present included Lasallian East Asia District Visitor Br. Jose Mari Jimenez, Auxiliary Visitor Br. Iñigo Riola, Br. Joseph Aung, Br. Morris Tang, Bishop Francis Than Htun, Dr. George Francisco, Dr. Evelyn Obo, several De La Salle Brothers in Asia, parents, and students.

The partnership's core objective is to offer robust technical assistance for De La Salle Academy Yangon in setting up a fully functional school. Dr. Evelyn Obo has been instrumental in this endeavor, serving as the primary faculty expert. She has been supported by a dedicated team of DLSU-D faculty members, including Dr. Ruby Causaren, Ms. Sharon Lubag, and Ms. Josephine Cruz, who have all contributed their expertise to the initiative.

Further cementing the growing relationship, four graduating students from De La Salle Academy Yangon are set to enroll at DLSU-D in August. These pioneering students will pursue full degrees in the Business and Engineering programs, representing the first cohort to benefit directly from this academic pathway. The partnership expresses a hopeful outlook for the future, with aspirations to welcome even more students from De La Salle Academy Yangon to DLSU-D in the coming years.

DLSU-D Hosts Australian Immersion Delegation

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) is proud to once again welcome a delegation from Australia today as part of its ongoing partnership with Catholic Mission, the Pope's international mission agency in Australia.

The consistent partnership between Catholic Mission, facilitated by Ms. Sony Mae Cuaycong, their National Youth Engagement Officer, and DLSU-D, allows the university to regularly host their delegations from Australian schools for impactful one-day immersive experiences.

DLSU-D proudly hosts 10 senior high school students and five teachers from John Paul College Frankston, led by Ms. Holly Blake. The day's program facilitates meaningful interactions, with the visiting students engaging with DLSU-D's Lasallian Student Ambassadors this morning. The immersion extends to the residents of Bahay Pag-Asa, fostering a direct and impactful connection with the local community. Following their enriching day at DLSU-D, the delegation is set to proceed to their next immersion site in Quezon City.

This immersion not only strengthens the vital bond between DLSU-D and Catholic Mission but also vividly highlights the shared values of service, education, and profound community support through a forthcoming donation to the DLSU-D scholarship program.

Paving the Way for International Collaboration: Universitas Padjadjaran Visits DLSU-D

Dr. Elma Mallorca, Dean of the College of Business Administration and Accountancy (CBAA), and Dr. Maria Nornelyn Cachuela from the Linkages and Scholarship Office had the honor of welcoming, Dr. Ersu Tri Wahyuni, CA, CPMA, CPSAK, CPA, WMI, CWM, a distinguished faculty member from Universitas Padjadjaran (UNPAD), Indonesia, for an ocular visit aimed at fostering potential academic partnerships.

Dr. Wahyuni's visit to DLSU-D focused on exploring opportunities for a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the university, particularly with the College of Business Administration and Accountancy (CBAA). This potential collaboration aims to pave the way for mutually beneficial initiatives, such as student and faculty exchanges, joint research projects, shared academic resources, and enriched learning experiences for both institutions.

The DLSU-D community looks forward to the promising prospects that this visit brings, as it reinforces our commitment to expanding our international network and providing our students and faculty with world-class opportunities.

CICS Faculty Boost Internationalization with Cutting-Edge Japan Training

The College of Information and Computer Studies (CICS) at DLSU-Dasmariñas continues to elevate its internationalization initiatives, following the recent participation of Dr. Maryli Rosas and Prof. Sheryl Kamantigue in the UMAP Training BM Program (Onsite) Capacity Building for International Education: Next-Shaping the Field in Education 5.0. This groundbreaking initiative, spearheaded by the Japan Hub for Innovative Global Education (JIGE), is designed to bolster capacity among participating UMAP institutions through an innovative blended approach.

The two CICS faculty members actively engaged in virtual sessions held on April 8, 15, and 22, laying the groundwork for the immersive onsite activities from June 2-7, 2025. This timely program coincided with the highly anticipated World Expo 2025 in Osaka, offering a unique opportunity for participants. The onsite component included a comprehensive full-day workshop at Kansai University and a significant visit to the World Expo, where a demonstration of COIL (Collaborative Online International Learning) connectivity was highlighted for Expo attendees.

The participation of Dr. Rosas and Prof. Kamantigue holds immense importance for CICS's ongoing efforts to internationalize its information technology and computer science programs at DLSU-Dasmariñas. As "Train the Trainer" participants, they are now equipped with advanced knowledge and practical strategies in cutting-edge educational methodologies and technologies.

The insights and best practices Dr. Rosas and Prof. Kamantigue gained from this international program will strengthen CICS' commitment to aligning IT and Computer Science education with world-leading standards and cross-border innovation.

Five DLSU-D Students Head to Brunei for Green Stewardship Exchange Program

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) is proud to announce that five of its promising students are embarking on an enriching two-week student exchange program at Universiti Brunei Darussalam (UBD). Hailing from the College of Liberal Arts and Communication (CLAC), the College of Tourism and Hospitality Management (CTHM), and the College of Science (COS), these students will immerse themselves in a vital program focused on Green Stewardship: Preserving Biodiversity and Advancing Sustainable Development.

This invaluable opportunity was initiated by the ASEAN University Network (AUN) and Universiti Brunei Darussalam, highlighting a strong regional commitment to environmental sustainability. The program is made even more accessible as it is a scholarship grant generously provided by UBD, covering the students' accommodation, meals, and local transportation throughout their stay.

The facilitation of this program was managed by the Linkages and Scholarship Office, under DLSU-D's Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations (OVPGEER). This office consistently works to bring diverse external opportunities that enrich the academic and personal growth of DLSU-D students.

A significant send-off ceremony was held, graced by key university officials, proud parents, and the student grantees themselves. Present at the signing were Dr. George Francisco, Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations; Dr. Nor Cachuela; Dr. Edwin Lineses; Mr. Paul Notorio; Dr. Grace Mejia; alongside the parents of the student participants and the student grantees.

This exchange program underscores DLSU-D's commitment to fostering global citizenship, environmental awareness, and academic collaboration, preparing its students to be active contributors to a sustainable future.

DLSU-D's CLAC Student Earns Spot at Prestigious NUS-AUN Symposium in Singapore

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) is thrilled to announce that Yunah Aidyl Maria Ramos, an exceptional International Development Studies student from the College of Liberal Arts and Communication (CLAC), is poised for a significant international experience. She is set to participate in the highly prestigious NUS-AUN Asian Undergraduate Symposium 2025 at the National University of Singapore (NUS) this July, an intensive two-week student exchange program.

This remarkable opportunity is a testament to strong regional academic collaboration, jointly initiated by the ASEAN University Network (AUN) and the National University of Singapore. It not only showcases a shared dedication to fostering academic excellence but also promotes deeper cooperation among ASEAN universities. Adding to its significance, the program is fully supported by a generous scholarship grant from AUN and NUS, comprehensively covering Yunah's accommodation, meals, and transportation throughout her stay.

The seamless coordination of this prestigious program was meticulously managed by DLSU-D's Linkages and Scholarship Office, operating under the Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations (OVPGEER). This office consistently excels in identifying and securing diverse external opportunities that profoundly enhance the academic and personal development of DLSU-D students.

A heartfelt send-off ceremony was recently held to commemorate Yunah's achievement. The event was attended by key university officials, including Dr. George Francisco, Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations; Dr. Nor Cachuela; and Dr. Edwin Lineses. Their presence, alongside Yunah's proud parents and the promising student grantee herself, underscored the university's collective support for her global endeavor.

Yunah's participation in this distinguished symposium powerfully exemplifies DLSU-D's unwavering commitment to cultivating global engagement, upholding academic distinction, and providing its students with invaluable international experiences that are crucial in shaping them into impactful global citizens.

DLSU-D and GMA Cavite LGU Forge Alliance Against Online Child Sexual Abuse

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) through its Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), has officially partnered with the Local Government Unit of General Mariano Alvarez (GMA), Cavite, to combat the pervasive issue of Online Sexual Abuse or Exploitation of Children (OSAEC). The landmark signing ceremony solidifies a collaborative effort aimed at protecting the youth from the devastating impacts of online exploitation.

The formalization of the partnership was held with key representatives from both institutions. Present at the signing were Dr. George Francisco, DLSU-D's Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations, and Hon. Maricel Torres, the esteemed Mayor of GMA, Cavite. They were joined by Dr. Grace Red, Ms. Edna Ramirez, LCDC project officers, and dedicated staff from the municipality of GMA, all committed to this crucial initiative.

OSAEC, or Online Sexual Abuse or Exploitation of Children, is a grave concern in the Philippines, which has been unfortunately identified as a global hotspot for this heinous crime. It encompasses any use of Information and Communications Technology (ICT) to sexually abuse or exploit children.

This partnership comes at a critical time, aligning with the Philippines' strengthened legal framework against OSAEC through Republic Act No. 11930, also known as the "Anti-Online Sexual Abuse or Exploitation of Children (OSAEC) and Anti-Child Sexual Abuse or Exploitation Materials (CSAEM) Act." The collaboration between DLSU-D and GMA Cavite LGU underscores a shared commitment to implementing the provisions of this act and proactively safeguarding children in the digital space.

The specific details of the partnership's initiatives will focus on a multi-pronged approach, likely including awareness campaigns, educational programs for parents and children, training for local authorities, and the development of support systems for victims. This alliance is a significant step forward in building a safer online environment for the children of GMA, Cavite, and serves as a model for community-driven efforts against OSAEC across the nation.

DLSU-D Explores Partnership with Philippine Italian Association (PIA) for Language and Cultural Exchange

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) is exploring an exciting new partnership with the Philippine Italian Association (PIA) to foster Italian language and cultural understanding among its students. Mr. Giunell Flores, General Manager of the Philippine Italian Association, recently met with the DLSU-D Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations team for an initial discussion on potential collaborations.

The exploratory talks centered on various initiatives, including the promotion of Italian language studies and the staging of cultural exchange programs such as an Italian Film Festival. These programs are envisioned to particularly benefit students from the College of Engineering, Architecture and Technology (CEAT), specifically those pursuing Multimedia Arts (MMA) and Communication (COM) programs under the College of Liberal Arts and Communication (CLAC). Exposure to Italian cinema and culture could offer invaluable insights and inspiration for their creative and technical pursuits.

Furthermore, the integration of Italian language courses could prove highly advantageous for students enrolled in the College of Tourism and Hospitality Management (CTHM), opening doors to diverse career opportunities in the global hospitality industry.

Both parties expressed enthusiasm for the potential partnership, recognizing the mutual benefits it could bring. The meeting concluded with a commitment to ongoing talks and consultations to flesh out the details and formalize this promising collaboration. Further announcements regarding the partnership are expected as discussions progress.

DLSU-D Hosts Manhattan University Gastronomy Expert, Fuels Global Exchange

A stimulating lecture on gastronomy was recently delivered by Dr. Emmett Ryan, a distinguished visiting faculty member from Manhattan University, to the faculty of the College of Tourism and Hospitality Management (CTHM) at De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D). The session also welcomed select faculty members from La Salle Lipa, fostering a broader academic exchange. Dr. Ryan, whose career is deeply rooted in the teaching of composition and writing within the culinary arts, offered unique insights into the academic study of food.

This significant event highlights the robust connections within the global Lasallian community, as both DLSU-D and Manhattan University are esteemed member institutions of the International Association of Lasallian Universities (IALU). This shared affiliation underscores a commitment to fostering international collaboration and shared educational values.

"It's always a privilege to engage with fellow educators who share a passion for understanding the multifaceted world of food," stated Dr. Ryan. "The enthusiasm and intellectual curiosity of the faculty here at DLSU-D and La Salle Lipa were truly inspiring."

The lecture served as a key precursor to an exciting development: a bilateral agreement between Manhattan University and DLSU-D set to launch in August 2025. This landmark partnership will focus on facilitating enriching student and faculty exchange programs, promising to broaden academic horizons and cultural understanding for both institutions.

The management of this strategic partnership will fall under the purview of DLSU-D's Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations, specifically through its Linkages and Scholarship Office. This dedicated oversight ensures a streamlined and effective implementation of the exchange initiatives.

"We are incredibly enthusiastic about the prospects this bilateral agreement brings," remarked by Dr. George Francisco, DLSU-D's Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations. "Dr. Ryan's lecture has set an excellent precedent for the caliber of academic interaction we anticipate. Our Linkages and Scholarship Office is poised to cultivate a truly impactful exchange program that will benefit our students and faculty immensely, fostering global competencies vital in today's interconnected world."

The upcoming exchange program is poised to enhance the academic experience by allowing students to immerse themselves in diverse educational environments and providing faculty with opportunities for collaborative research and innovative pedagogical approaches. This initiative further solidifies the commitment of both Manhattan University and DLSU-D to delivering world-class education within the esteemed Lasallian tradition.

DLSU-D Student Leaders Champion Green Stewardship at UBD-AUN Summer Camp 2025 in Brunei
June 19, 2025:

Five dedicated student leaders from De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) are currently immersed in the vibrant Universiti Brunei Darussalam (UBD)-AUN Summer Camp 2025. Running from June 15 to June 28, 2025, this highly anticipated program, themed "Green Stewardship: Preserving Biodiversity and Advancing Sustainable Development," brings together 136 delegates from across the AUN Core Member, ASEAN+3, and AUN Associate Member Universities.

The DLSU-D contingent includes Erin Jozel Miranda Madlangbayan (Philosophy and Psychology Department), Hannah Alexa Bio Blas (Philosophy and Psychology Department), Sophia Beatrice Borneo Jardinel (Biological Sciences Department), Cindinha Hayley Da Graça Belo Monemnasi (Biological Sciences Department), and Mayyeh Mee Ocampo Magtoto (Tourism Management Department). These students are actively engaging in a diverse array of activities designed to cultivate environmental leadership and innovation. Their participation highlights their crucial role as the next generation of environmental stewards.

Participants are currently taking part in Upskilling Workshops, focusing on developing crucial soft skills and instilling a deeper sense of environmental responsibility among the youth. Beyond theoretical learning, the camp emphasizes hands-on experience through Community Projects, including vital initiatives like tree planting, clean-up drives, and biodiversity monitoring. The students' active participation showcases their strong commitment to being stewards of a sustainable future.

A highlight of the program includes Innovation Challenges, where delegates are tasked with devising creative, technology-driven solutions to pressing local environmental issues. To complement these challenges, Field Trips to Green Projects are providing invaluable insights into successful youth-led environmental initiatives, sustainable farms, and critical conservation areas, further demonstrating practical applications of sustainable development.

In addition to practical engagement, the students are receiving Policy and Advocacy Training, equipping them with the knowledge and skills to champion environmental policies and actively participate in environmental governance. Balancing the intensive academic and environmental focus, the camp also features enriching Cultural Activities, offering interactive exchange sessions, traditional craft workshops, and captivating cultural performances, fostering a holistic and memorable experience for all participants.

This immersive summer camp exemplifies the commitment of universities across the region to nurturing the next generation of environmental stewards, paving the way for a more sustainable future.

From DASMARINAS to POLAND:

La Salle Filipiniana Dance Company and OVPGEER Host "Dine & Shine" to Fund Historic Poland Competition

The La Salle Filipiniana Dance Company (LSFDC), in a landmark partnership with the Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations, is proud to announce "Dine & Shine: A Benefit Dinner for LSFDC's Global Showcase." This exclusive fundraising event, held tonight, June 21, 2025, at 5:00 PM at the Ayuntamiento de Gonzalez Reception Hall, aims to garner crucial support for LSFDC's upcoming historic performance in Poland.

LSFDC has earned the distinct honor of being the only group from the Philippines and Southeast Asia invited to perform and compete at the prestigious 28th International Dance Festival in Gorzow Wielkopolski, Poland, from June 27 to July 5, 2025. This invitation marks a significant milestone for the group and a momentous opportunity to showcase the richness and vibrancy of Filipino culture and arts on an international stage.

The "Dine & Shine" benefit dinner promises an evening of exquisite cuisine and captivating performances by the La Salle Filipiniana Dance Company itself, offering attendees a preview of the talent and artistry that will soon mesmerize audiences in Poland. All proceeds from the event will directly support LSFDC's travel, accommodation, and logistical needs for their participation in the festival.

Accompanying the LSFDC on this momentous journey will be the dedicated OSS team members, Jemily Puchero and Joel Refuerzo, ensuring the group's smooth and successful representation abroad.

The La Salle Filipiniana Dance Company's participation in the 28th International Dance Festival is a testament to their unwavering dedication to promoting Filipino culture and arts through the universal language of dance. Tonight's "Dine & Shine" event is a call to action for the community to rally behind these talented artists as they embark on a journey to bring Filipino brilliance to the global stage.

Former Fulbright Scholar from Hawaii Establishes Transformative Scholarship for the College of Education Students at DLSU-Dasmariñas

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) proudly announced today the establishment of the Felix and Anastacia Memorial Scholarship, a new initiative set to empower aspiring educators. The Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for the scholarship program was officially signed by Ms. Ritchilda Yasana, a distinguished university faculty member from Hawaii and a former Fulbright Scholar.

Ms. Yasana, who participated in a cultural exchange program at DLSU-D in 2022, has long held a deep passion for education, particularly for marginalized communities. Her commitment to fostering academic growth and providing opportunities for deserving students culminated in the creation of this meaningful scholarship.

The signing ceremony, held at the ADG Building of DLSU-D, was a momentous occasion graced by key university officials and the inaugural scholarship recipients. Among those present were Dr. George Francisco, Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations; Dr. Nor Cachuela, Linkages & Scholarship Director; and Dr. May Mojica, Scholarship Coordinator. Ms. Yasana herself led the signing, joined by the five deserving students from the College of Education: Denisse Azuela, Cyra Nicole Marie Laniog, Jose Mari Salvador, Ciazka Lorren Tucay, and Earl John Colabres.

The Felix and Anastacia Memorial Scholarship aims to support these talented individuals in their pursuit of education, reinforcing DLSU-D's commitment to academic excellence and social responsibility. Ms. Yasana's initiative reflects a profound belief in the transformative power of education and its ability to uplift individuals and communities.

DLSU-D and Rizal Technological University Forge Research Partnership

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), through its University Research Office, signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Rizal Technological University (RTU) to formalize a strategic research partnership.

The signing ceremony welcomed a distinguished RTU delegation led by President Dr. Ma. Eugenia M. Yangco, together with Dr. Magno Quendangan, Vice President for Research, Innovation, and Extension Services, and Dr. Ryan Manuel M. Guido, Director of the Research, Development, and Innovation Office, among other key officials.

Dr. Jose Rocina, Director of DLSU-D's University Research Office, presented an overview of the partnership, emphasizing its focus on collaborative research, faculty development, and knowledge exchange. He outlined initiatives such as shared academic resources, joint publications, and capacity-building through ethics training, expert-led workshops, and joint thesis and dissertation panels.

Dr. Cristina C. Salibay, OIC of the Office of the President and Provost of DLSU-D, reaffirmed the university's strong commitment to the collaboration. She emphasized planned initiatives such as faculty exchanges and special lectures at both undergraduate and graduate levels. The MOU also paves the way for joint research in key areas including natural products, biodiversity, environmental studies, space satellite technology, science education, engineering, and data science.

Dr. Quendangan underscored the shared vision behind the partnership, stating, "The collaboration between DLSU-D and RTU aims to address societal challenges and contribute to inclusive and sustainable development." Echoing this, Dr. Yangco added, "This milestone is a stepping stone for our students and faculty, especially in research and development. It reflects what is possible when institutions and individuals commit to a shared purpose."

This strategic alliance is expected to elevate both universities' research profiles, open up funding opportunities, and deliver impactful solutions for sustainable community development.

DLSU-D's CICS and DICT CALABARZON Explore Strategic ICT Partnership

In a promising step toward strengthening digital education and capability-building, the College of Information and Computer Studies (CICS) and the Department of Information and Communications Technology (DICT) Region IV-A (CALABARZON) held an exploratory meeting that culminated in the signing of a Letter of Intent (LOI) to collaborate on key information and communications technology (ICT) initiatives.

The meeting brought together representatives from DLSU-D and DICT CALABARZON. DLSU-D was represented by Prof. Marivic Mitschek, Dean of the College of Information and Computer Studies, and Prof. Sherry Naz, Chair of the Information Technology Department. From DICT CALABARZON, Regional Director Felix S. Tabanao, Jr. and Mr. John Philip Tan, Project Development Officer and Focal Person for the ICT Literacy and Competency Development Bureau (DICT-ILCDB), were present. The discussions centered on a shared vision to advance digital literacy, cybersecurity awareness, and ICT project management in the region. Additionally, the partnership aims to enhance student and faculty development through certification programs and structured internship opportunities. Among the initiatives proposed by DICT is the provision of free training programs on Philippine National Public Key Infrastructure (PNPKI) and cybersecurity awareness for DLSU-D faculty and staff.

Prof. Mitschek expressed enthusiasm about how the collaboration supports the college's ongoing efforts to make Information Technology a powerful tool in realizing Sustainable Development Goal 9: Industry, Innovation, and Infrastructure.

Empowering our frontliners with life-saving skills!

The Lasallian Community Development Center continued its effort in spreading awareness on emergency response through a training on Basic Trauma Emergencies conducted last 05 June 2025 for the Female Dormitory Personnel of BJMP-Dasmariñas City Jail.

The training was facilitated by Ms. Jhelyn Relopez, and was co-facilitated Ms. Nena Caspe, Mrs. Rona Serrano, Ms. Keavy Cuevas and Mr. Jhoven Paulite.

Together, let us build safer communities through service, preparedness, and compassion.

De La Salle University - Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), Save the Children Philippines, and the Local Government of General Mariano Alvarez (GMA), Cavite Unite to Combat Online Sexual Abuse or Exploitation of Children (OSAEC)

In response to the growing issue of OSAEC in the country, DLSU-D, through the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) and its Batang LIGTAS initiative, the Local Government of GMA, and Save the Children Philippines have officially entered into an agreement.

The partnership aims to support various educational programs, training sessions, and activities designed to strengthen the capabilities of barangay officials, teachers, parents, children, youth, and service providers in identifying, reporting, and responding to OSAEC cases. This initiative will also include the distribution of Information, Education, and Communication (IEC) materials to raise public awareness on this critical issue.

The Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) was signed on June 9, 2025, at the GMA Municipal Hall in Cavite. The event was attended by Dr. George Francisco, Vice President of DLSU-D for Global Engagement and External Relations; Dr. Grace Red, Director of LCDC; Mr. Francis Domingcil, Project Head of Batang LIGTAS; Hon. Maricel Torres, Municipal Mayor of GMA; Ms. Edna Ramirez, Project Coordinator of Protect Children PH from Save the Children Philippines; along with representatives from various local government offices.

Let us continue to unite in advocacy and action to uphold, defend, and protect the rights of every child!

Lasallians in action for brighter learning spaces!

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas through the combined effort of Human Resources Management Office and Lasallian Community Development Center and volunteers proudly joined the Brigada Eskwela 2025 on June 10, 2025 at the Dr. Jose P. Rizal Senior High School in Dasmariñas, Cavite.

As part of this initiative, the volunteers painted chairs and tables in the school park to create a vibrant and welcoming hangout spot for students during their breaks.

By actively supporting and participating in the annual Brigada Eskwela, DLSU-D demonstrates its strong commitment to nurturing learners and shaping a brighter future for the youth through this initiative.

Lasallians in Action: Building Brighter Schools Together

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas, in collaboration with the Human Resources Management Office (HRMO), the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), and dedicated volunteers, proudly took part in Brigada Eskwela 2025 on June 11, 2025. The initiative was held at Trece Martires City National High School – Cabuco Extension in Trece Martires City, Cavite.

As part of this meaningful endeavor, volunteers helped repaint classrooms to create a more vibrant, welcoming, and conducive learning environment for students.

A heartfelt thank you to our committed LCDC personnel and volunteers who devoted their time and effort to making this activity a success!

Through Brigada Eskwela, DLSU-D continues to uphold its Lasallian commitment to education, service, and community empowerment—working together to build a brighter future for every learner.

Brigada Eskwela 2025 & School Supplies Distribution: Tua Elementary School, Tua, Magallanes, Cavite

On June 11, 2025, De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) marked its second day of participation in Brigada Eskwela 2025. A collaborative initiative between the Human Resource Management Office (HRMO) and the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), this meaningful outreach took place at Tua Elementary School in Tua, Magallanes, Cavite, bringing together volunteers and sponsors committed to enhancing the learning environment for young students.

Throughout the day, volunteers painted the window grills and railings of the school while also distributing school supplies to 243 learners of Tua Daycare Center and Tua Elementary School. These efforts were made possible, thanks to the generous support of our major sponsors: Fraternal Order of Eagles CALABARZON Cavite Region 6, led by Governor Mr. Gabriel "Kuya Gabo" Ronario, Jr. and Dr. Frank Villanueva, along with the Parents Organization of La Salle Cavite (POLCA).

We extended heartfelt appreciation to our dedicated Lasallian volunteers: Ms. Lanie Barrera, Ms. Sherry Lynne Melanis, Mr. Adornado Jordan, and Mr. Melvin Reyes, as well as the LCDC personnel who participated in this initiative.

Supporting Brigada Eskwela 2025 is a testament to DLSU-D's commitment to fostering a conducive learning environment and ensuring a brighter future for young learners through education.

The Lasallian Justice and Peace Commission (LJPC), and the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), in collaboration with the Philosophy and Psychology Department of the College of Liberal Arts and Communication (PPD-CLAC), organized Lasallian Frontliners: Psychological First Aid and Debriefing on June 16-18, 2025 in the Reception Hall of Ayuntamiento de Gonzales, De La Salle University-Dasmariñas.

With seven La Salle Schools represented, this specialized training program aims to equip disaster response personnel with crucial skills in Psychological First Aid (PFA), Psychological Debriefing, and the core principles of Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS).

This three-day training is designed to blend evidence-based frameworks with practice-based workshops to ensure participants gain both the technical knowledge and practical skills they need to provide effective, compassionate, and ethical support to those affected by crises.

Ms. Angelica Irah Mari Pallasigui-Watamura of PPD-CLAC and Ms. Anne Franchesca Dela Viña-Cruz provided their expertise as the Resource Speakers.

Twenty-nine (29) participants from seven (7) La Salle Schools were trained as Psychological First Aid (PFA) Providers last 16-18 June 2025 organized by the Lasallian Justice and Peace Commission (LJPC) and the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC).

The overarching goal of this training is to capacitate Lasallian responders with the psychosocial skills and tools required to deliver life-saving support in times of crisis and disaster. The training program is structured to not only increase knowledge but also enhance the practical application of mental health and psychosocial support strategies, ensuring that responders can immediately and effectively respond to the psychosocial needs of affected communities.

Ms. Angelica Irah Mari Pallasigui-Watamura and Ms. Anne Franchesca Dela Viña-Cruz trained the participants to recognize the psychological impacts of disasters and how to address these needs in a culturally competent and contextually relevant way.

They also learned how to balance emotional support with practical assistance, ensuring that the responders themselves are also supported, and equipped to handle the emotional strain of working in disaster settings.

A Sustainable Solution for De La Salle Bahay Pag-asa Dasmariñas

We are pleased to recognize the significant contribution of a dedicated group of Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering (BSME) students from College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT) on June 4, 2025. These students generously donated a Paper Recycling Machine with Optional Banana Trunk Fiber Infusion to De La Salle Bahay Pag-asa Dasmariñas (BPD).

This innovative, multi-stage machine is designed to transform discarded paper into usable recycled paper, providing a sustainable solution. The students who conceptualized and developed this remarkable project are Mr. Kristan Kyle Tibayan, Mr. Eldwin Matthew Villanueva, Mr. Kierovhin Villanueva, and Mr. Naulty Jaen Jr. They were guided and supported by their professor, Engr. Eugene Caniete. Beyond the donation, the students conducted a comprehensive demonstration of the machine's operation and thoroughly explained all necessary safety measures to the BPD residents. Their engagement with BPD Residents, BPD Director Ms. Rosario Pareja and Residential Child Care Worker Ms. Nida Cruzada during the session was truly inspiring.

This remarkable achievement was made possible through the tireless efforts of the Mechanical Engineering Program Council (MEEPC). Our deepest gratitude goes out to Ms. Niña Ramos, Mr. Rhanjid Kyan Aparicio, Mr. Aaron John Aure, Mr. Deann Olsen Benisano, and Mr. Martial Lawrenz Dagaraga. Their collaborative spirit and meticulous preparation of all logistical needs, under the supervision of their adviser, Engr. Edgardo Alasco, were instrumental to the success of this initiative.

We also extend our sincere thanks to Ms. Mary Grace Virata, University Extension Representative of the CEAT, and Engr. Conrado Monzon, Associate Dean, CEAT, for gracing the event with their presence and support. It was also attended by Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya, Faculty and Service Learning Program Officer from the Lasallian Community Development Center,

This project stands as a testament to how engineering innovation can directly contribute to community development and foster a more sustainable future. We commend everyone involved for their dedication and outstanding achievement.

Fostering Community Sustainability Through Engineering Innovation: College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT), Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering (BSME) Students' Contributions to Brgy. Tua

We are pleased to recognize a significant outreach initiative undertaken on June 5, 2025, by two groups of Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering (BSME) students from the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT). These students demonstrated commendable dedication by donating and demonstrating the use of two innovative machines to the community of Brgy. Tua, Magallanes, Cavite, directly benefiting the BaTuFa Coop.

The following student groups, under the guidance of their esteemed adviser Engr. Gabriel Tecson Jr., developed and presented these valuable contributions:

- Coffee Powder Dispenser: A five-layer coffee bean sorter employing gravimetric principles for size-based sorting, developed by Mr. Tommy Leonardo, Mr. Rj Rosario, Mr. Christian Caratihan, and Mr. Ricardo Fajardo.
- Coffee Powder Dispensing Machine: Designed to automate the dispensing of 8-9 grams of coffee powder, this machine is intended to enhance the production efficiency of the BaTuFa Coop. It was developed by Mr. Alphonzo Pastias, Mr. Ibn Ikeda, Ms. Natalya Pauig, and Ms. Hanicka Jacobo.

The successful execution of this event was a testament to the collaborative efforts of various individuals and groups. We extend our sincere gratitude to the Mechanical Engineering Program Council (MEEPC), composed of Ms. Niña Ramos, Mr. Rhanjid Kyan Aparicio, Mr. Aaron John Aure, Mr. Deann Olsen Benisano, and Mr. Martial Lawrenz Dagaraga, under the supervision of Engr. Edgardo Alasco, MEEPC Adviser, for their meticulous preparation and logistical support. Ms. Mary Grace Virata, University Extension Committee Representative from CEAT, for her presence and support. Ms. Sofia Gapasin and Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya, faculty members from LCDC, for their attendance.

The University extends its appreciation to the officials and members of Brgy. Tua for their warm reception and hospitality. To Hon. Jonaldo Tapes, Brgy. Chairman of Brgy. Tua, Magallanes, Cavite, and his Brgy. Council, for hosting the delegation from De La Salle University -Dasmariñas. The members of the BaTuFa Coop, including their head, Mr. Ben Vicedo, who articulated his profound gratitude to the students for their valuable donation to the cooperative, and to Mr. Zaldy Ronario, Brgy. Councilor of Brgy. Tua, who also expressed his appreciation for the donated machines for the BaTuFa Coop and the additional donation of a cabinet for Brgy. Tua Elementary School.

This initiative underscores the commitment of the De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) students and faculty to applying their academic knowledge for societal benefit and community development. We commend their dedication to innovation and service.

Providing Service Through Technology and Innovation for the Special Children of Bukal ng Kapayapaan (Home for Abandoned Special Children)

We are thrilled to share wonderful news of a heartwarming initiative led by the Mechanical Engineering Program Council (MEEPC), under the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT), demonstrating their commitment to service through technology and innovation.

On June 7, 2025, the MEEPC successfully facilitated the donation of a specialized mechanical (MeCo) wheelchair to the Bukal ng Kapayapaan (Home for the Abandoned Special Children) of the Missionaries of Charity Brothers in Trece Martires City, Cavite. A demonstration of the wheelchair's capabilities was also conducted during the event. The MeCo wheelchair is a specialized lifting chair system meticulously designed to assist in the safe and comfortable transfer of cerebral palsy patients. This remarkable innovation is the fruit of dedication and ingenuity from a talented group of students: Ms. Chynna Ysabelle Brugada, Mr. Rann Arren De Chavez, Mr. Christian Jaron Sampan, Mr. Gabriel Verde, and Mr. Janzent Bulatao. Their efforts were brilliantly guided by the faculty members of the Mechanical Engineering Department, Engr. Eugene Caniete and Engr. Alfredo Glorioso Hicaro.

The successful facilitation of this donation was also made possible by the diligent efforts of the MEEPC members: Ms. Niña Ramos, Mr. Rhanjid Kyan Aparicio, Mr. Aaron John Aure, Mr. Deann Olsen Benisano, and Mr. Martial Lawrenz Dagaraga, all under the dedicated supervision of Engr. Edgardo Alasco.

We extend our deepest gratitude to the Missionaries of Charity Brothers, particularly Br. Binu Thomas and Br. Gab Mahomoc, headed by Br. Thomas Kandulna, as well as Ms. Belen Alega, Social Worker of Bukal ng Kapayapaan. They warmly welcomed the donation and expressed profound gratitude to the students of CEAT for their thoughtful contribution.

We also extend our sincere thanks to Ms. Mary Grace Virata, University Extension Representative of the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT), for gracing the event with her presence and support. The event was also attended by Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya, Faculty and Service Learning Program Officer from the Lasallian Community Development Center,

This initiative truly exemplifies the spirit of compassion and the power of engineering to make a tangible difference in the lives of those who need it most.

Congratulations to everyone involved for this outstanding act of service!

Lasallians Unite for a Brighter Future!

A productive Meeting was held on June 9, 2025, bringing together Lasallian institutions for a collaborative project.

The College of Rehabilitation Sciences (CRS) of De La Salle Medical and Health Sciences Institute (DLSMHSI) hosted this vital gathering focused on a collaborative project for Bukal ng Kapayapaan: Home for the Abandoned Special Children of the Missionaries of Charity Brothers, in Trece Martires, Cavite.

This project underscores DLSU-D and DLSMHSI's commitment to providing health services by building essential structures and fostering innovation for children with special needs within our community.

Key representatives from the following institutions were in attendance:

- * De La Salle Medical and Health Sciences Institute (DLSMHSI) - College of Rehabilitation Sciences (CRS)
- * De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) - College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT) and Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC)
- * Bukal ng Kapayapaan: Home for the Abandoned Special Children of the Missionaries of Charity Brothers

The main agenda for the meeting was the presentation of the draft layout plan for the much-needed therapy rooms at Bukal ng Kapayapaan. This crucial presentation was led by the Architecture Department from DLSU-D's CEAT, specifically Arch. Joselito Cillo and Arch. Earl Kesternich Distor. We also extend our gratitude to Engr. Irish Polinga and Ms. Mary Grace Virata for representing CEAT.

A significant aspect of this collaborative effort is the active role of CRS in providing the essential content and specifications for the therapy rooms, ensuring alignment with Commission on Higher Education (CHED) requirements. Their expertise is vital in designing spaces that will offer optimal support for the special children in their care in Cavite.

This project is a testament to how we can leverage expertise across various fields to create impactful and innovative solutions for our local community.

We are immensely grateful to all who attended and contributed to this meaningful initiative!

Special thanks to our attendees:

From CRS (Host): Dr. Ma. Cecilia Licuan (Dean, who presided and hosted the meeting), Ms. Natalizia Pagtakhan, Mr. Kerwyn Jim Chan, Ms. Maria Luisa Valenzuela, Mr. Samuel Guarino, Mrs. Julie Ann Mendoza, Ms. Carmela Carandang, Mr. BJ Red, Ms. Vivian Viscara, and Ms. Janna Salinas.

From LCDC: Dr. Socorro Grace Red, Ms. Maria Nena Caspe, and Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya.

From CEAT: Arch. Joselito Cillo, Engr. Irish Polinga, Arch. Earl Kesternich Distor, and Ms. Mary Grace Virata.

From Bukal ng Kapayapaan: Br. Thomas Kandulna, Br. Binu Thomas, Br. Gab Mahomoc, and Ms. Belen Alega.

On June 21, thirty (30) barangay leaders—including officials, health workers, and tanods (community peacekeepers)—from Barangay San Miguel, Dulag, Leyte, actively participated in a Community Team Building activity, facilitated by Dr. Socorro Grace Red and Mr. Jhoven Paulite of the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC).

The activity aimed to strengthen communication, foster creativity and resourcefulness, and deepen cohesion among community leaders—qualities essential for driving sustainable community development and collective progress.

Mr. Gladstone Cuarteros, National Coordinator of the Lasallian Justice and Peace Commission (LJPC), guided the processing and sharing session, helping participants reflect on their experiences and internalize meaningful insights.

This initiative formed part of the Leyte Mission Visit to communities previously supported by the One La Salle Yolanda Recovery and Rehabilitation Project (OLSYRRP)- a two-year program dedicated to uplifting the lives of the survivors of Typhoon Yolanda. The activity is a collaborative endeavor of De La Salle Philippines' Social Action Unit, LJPC, the Lasallian Community Development Center of De La Salle University-Dasmariñas, and De La Salle Lipa's Community Involvement Office (CIO).

Brigada Eskwela 2025: Unity in Action for Education

From June 20 to 23, 2025, De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) joined De La Salle Philippines and De La Salle Lipa in supporting Brigada Eskwela 2025. This meaningful outreach was held at San Miguel Elementary School and Luan Elementary School in Dulag, as well as Mercyville Elementary School in Tacloban, Leyte—bringing together Lasallian volunteers, parents, teachers, barangay officials, and sponsors united in their mission to enhance the learning environment for young students.

During the visit, volunteers repaired and beautified school grounds and classrooms in San Miguel and Mercyville Elementary Schools that had been previously constructed and donated by De La Salle Philippines. De La Salle Team also distributed school supplies to 817 learners across the three beneficiary schools.

Brigada Eskwela formed part of the Leyte Mission Visit, focusing on schools supported by the One La Salle Yolanda Recovery and Rehabilitation Project.

DLSU-D was represented by Dr. Grace Red, Ms. Melanie Malabanan, Mr. Jhoven Paulite, and Engr. Irish Polinga. DLSP sent Krizzhia Rosero and Mr. Gladstone A. Cuarteros while DLS-Lipa was represented by Ms. Michelle Lanunio, Ms. Maricel Perez, Ms. Rhea Bayeta, and Mr. Julio Goce.

De La Salle schools participation in Brigada Eskwela 2025 reaffirms its commitment to fostering a nurturing learning environment and helping shape a brighter future for young Filipino learners through education.

CEAT Takes Steps Towards Gawad Kalinga Healthcare Center!

On June 9, 2025, the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT) conducted an ocular visit to Gawad Kalinga Piela in Brgy. Sampalok 3, Dasmariñas City, Cavite.

The visit had two main objectives:

- * To measure the lot area designated for the construction of the GK healthcare center, for the finalization of the plan.
- * To present the draft plan for the healthcare center, developed by the Architecture Department under CEAT.

The presentation was led by Ar. Joselito Cillo and Ar. Earl Kesternich Distor. Showing their support as CEAT representatives were Engr. Irish Polinga and Ms. Mary Grace Virata and a representatives from LCDC, Dr. Socorro Grace Red, Ms. Sofia Gapasin, Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya and Ms. Aimerriy Sekiguchi

The draft plan was presented to the Gawad Kalinga (GK) Heads: Mr. Edgar Purificacion, GK Head-Cavite, Mr. Nikko Jay Navida, GK Area Development Coordinator, and Mr. Arlindo Taculod, GK SMDC Project Director. Also in attendance were GK Kalinga Leaders: Ms. Charlene Villano, Mr. Layrito Galit, Ms. Arlene Balasabas, Ms. Leizel Niaga, and Ms. Regina Marmol.

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) is a member of the newly re-organized (2025) City Council for the Protection of Children (CCPC) of Dasmariñas. Through its designated representative, Maria Nena Caspe, participated to the city nationwide celebration of Adoption & Alternative Child Care Week: Hope and Home for Every Child on June 20, 2025 at the AVR of Socio-economic Building. The event was a whole-day activity which provided capacity development for the CCPC members and other stakeholders in Dasmariñas. The participants were oriented with the new era in Adoption and Alternative Child Care as a continuing professional development and strengthening of local child protection mechanisms about Republic Act No. 11642, The Domestic Administrative Adoption and Alternative Child Care Act and its implications for local implementation. This is to equip all CCPC members with updated knowledge and guidelines on the adoption process and alternative child care services in accordance with national policy reforms. This was a mandatory attendance for compliance to the CCPC members.

LCDC attended the Network of Care Region IV-A 2nd Quarter Meeting held on June 24, 2025 through its representatives, Mr. Francis Jay Domingcil and Ms. Maria Nena Caspe. They are the project officers of Batang Ligas Project and Social Equity & Inclusion respectively. The meeting was hosted by the DSWD IV-A held at the DSWD IV-A Extension Office, South Park Center, Alabang, Muntinlupa City. The strong Network of Care is composed of non-government organizations and institutions serving and protecting the children in the region. (Photo courtesy from NoC GC)

Strengthening the Heart of Community Engagement!

To advance inclusive, relevant, and sustainable community programs, the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) facilitated a two-day Capacity Building Workshop for University Extension Leaders last June 25–26, 2025.

The workshop provided a comprehensive learning experience for University Extension Representatives (UERs). Day 1 featured sessions on community development frameworks, program design, stakeholder engagement, and advocacy strategies. Day 2 highlighted the Whole-of-College Approach, service-learning integration, and collaborative action planning—equipping participants with practical tools and strategies for effective, values-driven community engagement.

Through these sessions, participants deepened their understanding of extension work aligned with the University Extension Framework, the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and Catholic Social Teachings (CST)—preparing them to lead programs that respond meaningfully to the needs of marginalized and vulnerable communities.

Congratulations to all participants for your active engagement and unwavering commitment to faith-driven service!

Partner Beneficiaries

Total Reached: 1,158 INDIVIDUALS

For the reporting period, a total of 1,158 individuals were reached through various programs and initiatives implemented in partnership with our beneficiary organizations. These engagements reflect our ongoing commitment to community development and collaborative outreach.

The beneficiaries were engaged through a range of activities including educational support, capacity-building sessions, health and wellness programs, and socio-civic initiatives. These undertakings were made possible through active coordination with partner institutions, local communities, and stakeholders who played a critical role in the successful implementation of each program.

The significant number of individuals reached demonstrates the effectiveness of our sustained efforts in empowering communities and fostering inclusive development. These results also reflect our strategic alignment with institutional goals of service and social responsibility.

Moving forward, we aim to build on these accomplishments by expanding our networks, deepening our impact, and ensuring that future initiatives continue to respond to the evolving needs of our partner beneficiaries.
