DLSU-D Spearheads Regional Internationalization Forum: CALABARZON HEIs Rationalize SDG-Driven Global Connections

In a landmark initiative aimed at reshaping the landscape of regional higher education, De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) recently hosted its inaugural Region-wide Internationalization Forum, "Embracing Global Connections through SDGs." This pivotal event brought together over a hundred leaders and stakeholders from Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) across CALABARZON, igniting a powerful dialogue on integrating the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into internationalization strategies.

Organized by DLSU-D's Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations (OVPGEER), the forum served as a catalyst for collaborative action, fostering strategic alignment and knowledge sharing among regional HEIs.

2024 PANATA KO SA BAYAN AWARDS: Pagkilala sa Natatanging Kontribusyon sa Bayan!

On March 11, 2025, the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) received the prestigious Region 4-A “MOST OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER IN DSWD Residential Care and Facilities for the Year 2024” during the Panata Ko sa Bayan Awards. This momentous awarding is part of the DSWD’s 74th Anniversary celebration at Sequoia Hotel, Parañaque City, Manila.

The award is both a recognition of LCDC’s commitment to serve communities and testament of its unwavering spirit for collaboration and partnership for impactful and sustainable welfare and development.

The award was received by Mr. Jose Ritche Bongcaron, Chief Lasallian Mission Officer, Dr. Socorro Grace Red, LCDC Director, and Rona Serrano, LCDC faculty.

May the spirit of service and partnership that fueled this achievement continue to inspire and uplift the Lasallian Community Development Center and the communities it serves.

National Voluntary Blood Services

We are thrilled and honored to announce that the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) has been awarded a Certificate of Recognition for its active participation in the National Voluntary Blood Services during the Gawad Dugong CALABARZON 2024.

The ceremony took place on March 26, 2025, at the Crimson Hotel, Filinvest Alabang, where LCDC was recognized and honored for its dedication to the noble cause of voluntary blood donation. This achievement is a testament of LCDC's commitment to service, compassion, and making a difference in the lives of others. Thank you to everyone who supported, collaborated, and contributed to this meaningful cause. Together, we are saving lives!

Philippine Embassy in Mexico City Hosts De La Salle Schools for Institutional Collaborations

MEXICO CITY – Administrators from De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde (CSB) and De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) recently convened with officials from the Philippine Embassy in Mexico to explore partnerships with Mexican universities. The meeting, hosted by Ambassador Lilybeth R. Deapera, First Secretary and Consul Ralf G. Roldan, Marisa Winkler, and Cultural Officer Adrienne Zoe Abuloc, focused on establishing student and faculty exchange programs to enhance academic collaboration between the Philippines and Mexico.

The primary objective of the meeting was to leverage the Philippine Embassy's network to facilitate connections with prominent Mexican academic institutions. DLSU-D, in particular, aims to expand its reach into Central America and introduce Philippine Studies courses within Mexican universities.

DLSU-D Honors Sponsors of Lasallian SPOON Program, Ensuring Nourishment for Scholars

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) recently celebrated the generous contributions of sponsors and benefactors to its Lasallian SPOON (Support Program and Opportunity for Oneness through Nourishment) program, an initiative dedicated to providing free meals to DLSU-D scholars. The awarding ceremony, organized by the Scholarship Unit, recognized the vital role of these partners in ensuring that scholars receive essential nourishment throughout the academic year, allowing them to focus on their studies without the burden of food insecurity. The Lasallian SPOON program, with a budget exceeding three hundred thousand pesos, provides free meals to deserving students.

Dr. May Mojica, coordinator of the Scholarship Unit, and Mr. Dennis Bautista led the ceremony, expressing deep gratitude to the donors and sponsors. Notably, POLCA President Dr. Jenneth De Guia, CLAC Associate Dean Dr. Jigs Medina, and representatives from food concessionaires Cafe Museo, Darlyn's Catering, Mila's Diner, and Hiraya were honored for their commitment to the program.

Philippine Delegation Strengthens International Ties at La Salle Pachuca Summit

In a significant step toward strengthening international academic collaboration, Dr. Andres Barba, Vice President for Outreach and International Affairs of Universidad Popular Autonoma del Estado de Puebla (UPAEP), met with representatives from the Philippine delegation during the Internationalization Summit held at La Salle Pachuca, Mexico.

The delegation included representatives from De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde (DLS-CSB), and De La Salle-Lipa (DLS-Lipa). The discussions focused on fostering academic partnerships, student and faculty exchanges, and collaborative research opportunities between Mexican and Philippine institutions.

The summit served as a platform for strengthening global engagements, allowing institutions to explore innovative strategies for cross-border education and knowledge-sharing.

Strengthening Educational Partnerships!

The DLSU-D Basic Education Division proudly joins forces with Bacoors elementary schools—Bayanan Elementary School, Habay Elementary School, Mabolo Elementary School, Queens Row Elementary School, and Gov. P. F. Espiritu Elementary School—to officially declare the formation of the B-LEAD Consortium (Bacoors – La Salle Excellence in Learning and Academic Development Consortium). Together, we are committed to fostering academic excellence and holistic development for future generations!

Two Countries, One Heart

We warmly welcome the delegates from La Salle Chanthaburi (Mandapitak) to our campus for the Student Exchange Program!

With the theme "Two Countries, One Heart," this program strengthens our bond as Lasallians beyond borders, fostering friendship and cultural exchange.

DLSU-D Welcomes Aspirants and Live-inners for Orientation and Cultural Immersion

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) opened its doors to a group of aspirants and live-inners this Saturday morning, providing them with a comprehensive orientation and cultural immersion experience.

Hosted by the university's Linkages and Scholarship Office, the visit was led by Br. Jeano Endaya FSC. The group, comprised of three aspirants and four live-inners, embarked on a journey designed to familiarize them with DLSU-D's programs and rich cultural heritage.

DLSU-D Showcases Internationalization Programs at Providence University's Global Education Fair in Taiwan

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) made a strong presence at the annual Internationalization Fair hosted by Providence University in Taichung, Taiwan from March 20-21, 2025. The Linkages and Scholarship Office, led by Dr. Nor Cachuela, spearheaded DLSU-D's participation in the event, which aimed to foster international collaboration and promote student mobility.

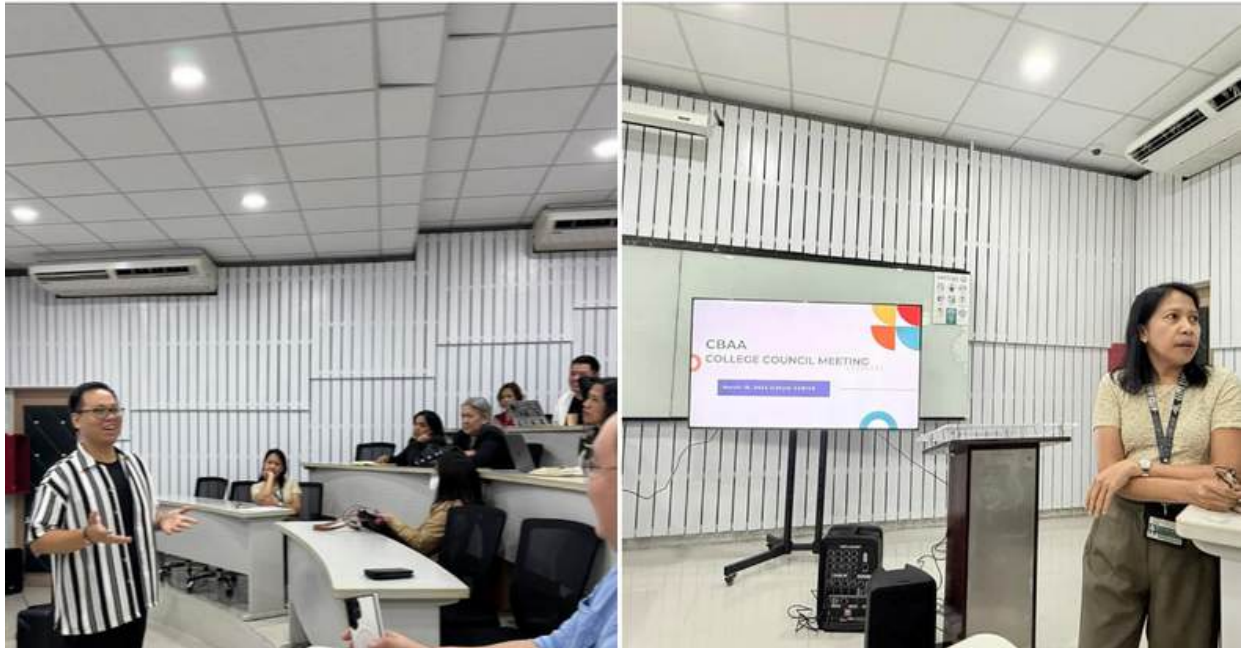

The fair served as a platform for various international institutions to showcase their internationalization programs and attract prospective students. DLSU-D's involvement focused on highlighting its diverse academic offerings and vibrant campus life to Taiwanese students, with the goal of increasing student enrollment from the region.

"Our participation in this fair is crucial in expanding DLSU-D's international reach," stated Dr. Cachuela. "We are eager to welcome more Taiwanese students to our campus and provide them with a high-quality Lasallian education."

Beyond student recruitment, the fair also served to strengthen the existing relationship between DLSU-D and Providence University. The two institutions have been actively collaborating through student exchange programs.

"We value our partnership with Providence University and are committed to fostering a mutually beneficial relationship," Dr. Cachuela added. "This fair provided an excellent opportunity to discuss and plan for future collaborations that will enrich the academic experiences of both our students and faculty."

DLSU-D's Global Engagement and External Relations Office Launches College Roadshow

The Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations (OVPGEER) at De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) has commenced a series of roadshow meetings with the university's colleges, aiming to bring its diverse programs and services directly to faculty and students.

The College of Business Administration and Accountancy (CBAA) headed by Dean Elma Mallorca was the first to host the OVPGEER team, engaging in an attentive session to learn about the various opportunities offered by the office's units, including Linkages and Scholarship, Advancement and Alumni Relations, and the Lasallian Community Development Center.

The roadshow initiative seeks to inform colleges about the wide range of resources available through OVPGEER, which encompass:

- International Mobility: Opportunities for faculty and student exchange programs and international collaborations.
- Scholarship Grants: Information on available scholarship programs and application procedures.
- Resource Generation Programs: Details on fundraising initiatives and partnership opportunities.
- Career Placement: Resources and support for students seeking employment and career development.
- Community Development: Programs and initiatives focused on serving local communities.
- Service-Learning Programs: Opportunities for students to engage in meaningful service experiences.

OVPGEER Roadshow Connects with CEAT, Expanding Global and Community Opportunities

The Office of the Vice President for Global Engagement and External Relations (OVPGEER) at De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) continued its campus-wide roadshow, recently meeting with the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT) to showcase its diverse programs and services.

The roadshow initiative aims to directly inform colleges about the extensive resources provided by OVPGEER, which are designed to enhance academic and professional development. Key areas highlighted during the meeting included:

International Mobility: Opportunities for faculty and student exchange programs, fostering global collaboration and cultural exchange.

1. Scholarship Grants: Comprehensive information on available scholarship programs and streamlined application procedures.
2. Resource Generation Programs: Details on fundraising initiatives and strategic partnership opportunities to support university projects.
3. Career Placement: Resources and support to guide students in their career development, including internship and job placement assistance.
4. Community Development: Programs and initiatives focused on serving local communities and promoting social responsibility.
5. Service-Learning Programs: Opportunities for students to engage in meaningful service experiences, integrating academic learning with community impact.

The Linkages and Scholarship office congratulates Dr. Evelyn Obo, faculty member of the Professional Education Department - College of Education, as the grantee for the Outbound Faculty Exchange Program for the 2nd Semester, AY 2024-2025!

Dr. Obo will be representing DLSU-Dasmariñas and will be sharing her expertise in education at De La Salle Academy. Joining the contract signing ceremony are Dr. Jose Arvin Gacelo (Dean, College of Education), Prof. Cristina Padilla (Chair, Professional Education Department), Dr. Nor Cachuela (Linkages Office Director), and Ms. Rachelle Arbiol (Internationalization and Program Mobility Officer). Congratulations, Dr. Obo!

The Complementary Pathways (CPath) benchmarking activity today, March 7th, brings together key stakeholders from De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D), De La Salle Araneta University (DLSAU), the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), the Department of Justice (DOJ), the Bureau of Immigration (BI), De La Salle Philippines Business Incubator (DLSPBI), and De La Salle University (DLSU). The focus of the meeting centered on the processes and practices of the CPath program, a vital initiative aimed at creating pathways for marginalized individuals.

The gathering provided a platform for in-depth discussions, allowing participants to share insights and best practices related to the program's implementation. A highlight of the event was a pocket meeting with four scholars currently completing their Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering. These scholars, beneficiaries of the CPath program, shared their experiences and successes, demonstrating the tangible impact of the initiative.

Mr. Ritchie Bongcaron, Chief Lasallian Mission Officer of DLSU-D, emphasized its alignment with the Lasallian mission. He stated, "This program calls us to live the Lasallian mission and the value of creating possibilities." This sentiment underscored the program's commitment to providing opportunities and empowering individuals to build better futures.

College of Tourism and Hospitality Management Forges Partnership with Korean Tourism Organization, Expanding Student Opportunities Beyond Seoul

In a move aimed at broadening students' academic and cultural horizons, the College of Tourism and Hospitality Management, represented by Dr. Grace Cella R. Mejia, and the Linkages and Scholarship Office, convened with the Korean Tourism Organization (KTO) on March 4th. The productive meeting focused on establishing a robust partnership that will offer students and faculty unique opportunities to explore the diverse landscapes and rich cultural heritage of South Korea.

The KTO delegation, comprising Ms. Eunkyung Cho, Deputy Director, Mr. Joseph Jeong, Marketing Project Coordinator, and Mr. Dustine Maaño, delivered engaging presentations highlighting the myriad of tourism initiatives and educational possibilities available beyond the well-known capital city of Seoul.

A key focus of the discussions was to facilitate student and faculty immersion in destinations such as Busan, Jeju Island, and the historic Gyeongbokgung area. This initiative seeks to provide a more comprehensive understanding of South Korea's tourism offerings, moving beyond the traditional concentration on Seoul.

Multimedia Arts Students Inspired by Web Comic Design Expertise of Halo Halo Corp. CEO

Over 100 Multimedia Arts students were captivated and inspired by Ms. Sharleen Dee Sy, CEO, CTO, and Co-Founder of Halo Halo Corp., during her insightful presentation on Web Comic Design held at the ADG Reception Hall.

Ms. Sy, a prominent figure in the digital arts and technology industry, shared her extensive expertise and personal journey, focusing on the transformative power of web comics and the importance of showcasing Filipino talent on a global stage.

Her presentation emphasized the crucial role of sharing one's work and actively championing Filipino artists in the international arena. Ms. Sy encouraged students to embrace their creativity and leverage digital platforms to reach wider audiences.

"Your talent has the power to reach audiences around the globe. Share your stories, share your art. The world needs to see the talent you have in the Philippines," Ms. Sy passionately stated, leaving a lasting impression on the aspiring artists.

The event provided students with valuable insights into the dynamic world of web comic creation, highlighting the potential for artistic expression and professional growth in the digital age. Ms. Sy's experience and advice resonated deeply with the students, motivating them to pursue their creative passions and contribute to the global artistic community.

Nurturing Hearts through Psychosocial First Aid and Integrated Mental Health Support in Times of Crisis

The Lasallian Community Development Center is currently conducting a Psychological First Aid and Integrated Mental Health Support training in collaboration with the College of Liberal Arts - Philosophy and Psychology Department (CLAC PPD) and the Dasmariñas City Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Office (CDRRMO).

With 50 participants actively engaging, this training aims to empower responders, humanitarian workers, and volunteers with skills and confidence to provide compassionate support to survivors in distress.

The session covers practical tools, communication techniques, and cultural sensitivity—ensuring responders can deliver immediate and dignified care to those in need.

Painting with Love, Building with Care

On March 23, 2025, the spirit of volunteerism and compassion came alive through the repainting of hallways and mural paintings of the bedridden room at Bukal ng Kapayapaan Home of the Missionaries of Charity Brothers, a home for abandoned children with special needs.

This meaningful activity was a joint project of the Graphics and Multimedia Department and the Architecture Department of DLSU-D College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT), in partnership with the United Architects of the Philippines (UAP) - Manila Nakpil Chapter, Philippine Institute of Architecture (PIA) - Cavite Chapter, and the Provincial Engineers Office - Cavite.

LSEED Training Session on Lasallian Social Entrepreneurship for Economic Development!

Grateful for the insightful LSEED Training Session on Lasallian Social Entrepreneurship for Economic Development!

On March 19, 2025, faculty members from LCDC, NSTP, CTHM, CBAA, and CEAT gathered for a face-to-face session at the LSEED Center in DLSU to discuss social entrepreneurship, SDG localization, and stakeholder engagement. It was an inspiring and encouraging exchange of ideas with Dr. Socorro Grace Red, Ms. Aimerry Navalta, Ms. Jhelyn Relopez, Ms. Iris Diorella Andaya, Mr. Lorenzo Centino, Ms. Jemelyn Puchero, Dr. Eric Vargas, Ms. Mary Daffodil Cordero, Ms. Mary May Eulogio, Mr. Renz Mascardo, Ms. Mary Grace Virata and the LSEED Center team.

TECHGROW Training by DOST-CALABARZON

On March 13, 2025, a team from the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) attended the TECHGROW Training conducted by DOST-CALABARZON in Tagaytay City. The sessions on R&D Needs Assessment, Problem-Solution Fit and Technology Readiness provided valuable insights on bridging research with real-world applications.

LCDC is grateful for this opportunity for its representatives to learn, collaborate and bring back innovative ideas to propel meaningful and sustainable community initiatives. Excitement fuels the team for what's ahead!

On March 13, 2025, the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) hosted the 1st Quarter Meeting of Region 4A Network of Care (NoC) at the Ayuntamiento de Gonzales (ADG) Reception Hall, De La Salle University-Dasmariñas, Cavite. The meeting was presided by DSWD FO IV-A. The gathering featured updates on the programs and projects of LCDC, Sorok Uni Foundation, Whole-Souled Psychological Services, IJM, RRPTP, and RIACAT-VAWC. Moreover, there were discussions on the Harmonized License and Permit System of DSWD and the upcoming plans and activities.

On March 12, 2025, the researchers for the Baseline Study, which serves as the foundation for the Comprehensive Community Development Plans and Programs (C2DP2) for LCDC's partner communities—Barangay Zone 1-A, Dasmariñas, and Barangay Tua, Magallanes—gathered to finalize the research proposal and survey tool. This study is a pivotal step toward crafting evidence-based interventions that address the specific needs of these communities.

LCDC takes great pride in working alongside distinguished faculty members from various departments who join in this endeavor, bringing their expertise and commitment to this important initiative.

DTI Cavite, OPCDO & LCDC Hold Collaborative Meeting

A collaborative meeting was held at the OPCDO Conference Room on March 4, 2025 between the Department of Trade & Industry (DTI) Cavite, Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), and the Office of the Provincial Cooperative Development Officer (OPCDO) to discuss a sustainable program for social entrepreneurship.

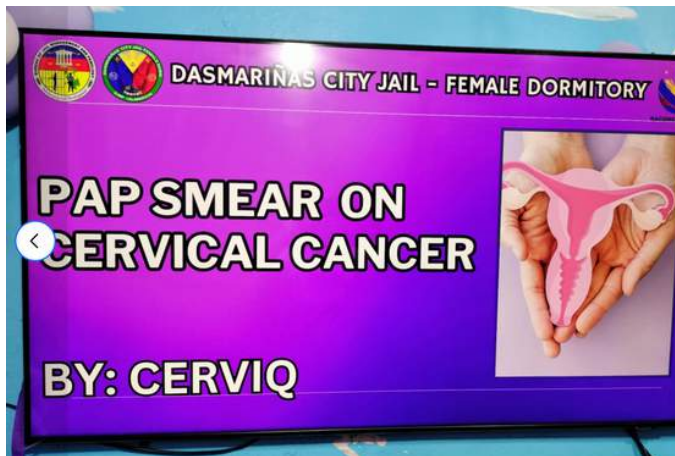

The initiative aims to empower communities by equipping them with business skills and fostering the growth of social ventures. By focusing on long-term community development and economic sustainability, the partnership seeks to provide opportunities for local entrepreneurs to thrive while addressing social and environmental challenges.

Nurturing Local Entrepreneurs for a Brighter, Sustainable Future!

The Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) is proud and honored to be part of a dynamic partnership with DTI Cavite and OPCDO to create pathways for sustainable growth through social entrepreneurship. Our goal is simple: to empower local communities with the tools, knowledge, and support needed to build businesses that not only succeed but also contribute positively to society and the environment.

Through collaboration, we aim to provide opportunities for individuals to create meaningful change, strengthen the local economy, and tackle pressing social issues with innovative solutions.

We are excited to continue this journey toward a brighter, more sustainable future for all.

Empowering Women Through Health Awareness

In celebration of Women's Month 2025, the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), in collaboration with CerviQ, held a meaningful Cervical Cancer Awareness Campaign on March 10, 2025, at the Bureau of Jail Management and Penology (BJMP) Dasmariñas City Jail. CerviQ, an advocacy group dedicated to raising awareness about cervical cancer, supported the initiative by providing preventive screenings and educational resources.

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D) attended the 9th Anniversary Celebration and Partners' Gathering of the Lasallian Social Enterprise and Economic Development (LSEED) Center on March 7, 2025, at De La Salle University. Themed "Localizing the Sustainable Development Goals through Social Entrepreneurship," the event united leaders from various sectors including the academe to advance social enterprise in the country.

Strengthening Community Engagement

Last March 6, 2025, the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) and the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT) team convened to discuss key updates on their ongoing Extension and Service-Learning Initiatives, reaffirming their commitment to community development and social impact.

LCDC and COS Council Meeting: Integrating QUEST and Community Development Initiatives

DLSU-D – February 5, 2025 – A pivotal meeting took place between the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC) and the College of Science (COS) Council on February 5, 2025. The primary agenda was to discuss the integration of the QUEST program into one of the college's degree programs and to provide updates on the community development initiatives spearheaded by LCDC.

The session was led by LCDC Director, Dr. Socorro Grace Red, who articulated the purpose of the meeting. Dr. Red emphasized the importance of aligning the college's academic programs with community development goals, thereby fostering a holistic educational environment that benefits both students and the community.

LCDC and CBAA Council Discuss Updates on HANGO Project

DLSU-D – February 21, 2025 – Faculty members from the Lasallian Community Development Center (LCDC), led by Director Dr. Socorro Grace M. Red, convened with the College of Business Administration and Accountancy (CBAA) council to discuss significant updates on the Humanitarian Act of Nurturing and Generating Opportunities (HANGO) Project. This meeting, held on February 21, 2025, aimed to review the progress of the HANGO Project and strategize on expanding its impact.

Launched in 2018, the HANGO Project is a pivotal initiative designed to achieve two primary objectives:

1. To actively and meaningfully contribute to improving the quality of life for struggling Filipino families.
2. To develop the professional competencies of future business leaders by providing them with a profound understanding of the socio-economic challenges faced by the Filipino people.

LCDC has played a crucial role in identifying the beneficiaries of the HANGO Project, ensuring that the support reaches those who need it most.

One of the key focuses of the meeting was to explore strategies for involving more beneficiaries in the HANGO Project. The council discussed potential partnerships with local organizations and community groups to extend the project's reach. By expanding the network of beneficiaries, the project aims to create a broader impact and support more families in need.

The session also addressed the integration of service-learning into two or more degree programs within the college. This approach aims to provide students with practical, hands-on experiences that complement their academic learning.

The meeting underscored the importance of collaboration between LCDC and CBAA in achieving the project's goals. Community Development Coordinator Jhelyn Relopez, QUEST Coordinator Dr. Maria Theresa Gochuico, QUEST Project Officer Iris Diorella Andaya, and former LCDC CBAA Extension In-Charge Melanie Malabanan were present to share their insights and contribute to the discussion.

The meeting concluded with a renewed commitment to advancing the HANGO Project's mission. The participants agreed on the need for continuous monitoring and evaluation to ensure the project's effectiveness and sustainability. Plans were made to implement the discussed strategies and to hold follow-up meetings to review progress and make necessary adjustments.
