

"I could have graduated in other universities as a teacher but never as a mission-ready volunteer. De La Salle taught me to reach out to the least, the last, and the lost and those lastly sought to be able to serve them with the competencies that I gained from the academe I will forever call home."

Community Directress, LSVP

DLSU-D ALUMNA

BS Elementary Education Batch 2018

Madz is a BS in Elementary Education graduate from De La Salle University-Dasmariñas (DLSU-D). Immediately after graduation, she joined the Lasallian Volunteer Program (LSVP) and became a Lasallian Volunteer. As Program Head of the Kaupod Community in Mondragon, Northern Samar, she pioneered Eskwela sa Bukid, a non-formal education program and helped establish a Mini Library for Brgy. Hinabangan. Her passion and commitment to serve communities prompted her to continue being a volunteer. Currently, she serves as Community Directress of an IP community in San Luis Lumad Community High school in Agusan del Sur.
