

Clores tackles papers on LGBT psychology at SCU Indonesia

Psychology Department faculty Ricardo Clores tackled papers on LGBT psychology as part of his arrangement as DLSU-D's exchange faculty to Soegijapranata Catholic University (SCU), Semarang, Central Java, Indonesia on May 1-23, 2016.

do when children rape and kill other children”, which discussed the plight of children termed as juvenile delinquents or children in conflict with the law and what can be done to address the problem. Being an exchange faculty, Clores also conducted several lectures and workshops on LGBT psychology, psychosocial concerns of children in conflict with the law, multi-cultural psychology with emphasis on Sikolohiyang Pilipino, and writing research in Psychology to graduate and undergraduate students of SCU.

Part of the exchange faculty program is to hold a seminar which was spearheaded itself by SCU on May 18, 2016. The seminar themed “Children in Conflict with the Law: Comparative Experiences between the Philippines and Indonesia,” was attended by local public officials, faculty members, students of graduate schools of psychology and law, and parents.

Clores shared his paper entitled “A thousand mile journey on what do we

Gosgolan is Signum Fidei's new VP

Gemma Gosgolan, a full-time faculty under the University Lasallian Family Office, was elected vice president of the Signum Fidei Foundation Inc. from June 20 this year to June 20, 2019. She has also been appointed as Luzon coordinator of the Signum Fidei Association for a period of three years: from April 19 this year to April 18, 2019.

Her duties and responsibilities include organizing regional assemblies and consecration rites, proposing programs that address the needs of the Faith Community leaders in the cluster and region, creating and submitting annual reports to the National Coordinator, and coordinating and managing with the Signum Fidei Chapter coordinators and National Coordinator in the implementation of the various programs, and assist the National Coordinator in forming a Faith Community within a school setting.

Signum Fidei is a fraternity of Lasallian lay people who want to live a life of faith and zeal as the Lasallian Brothers do, which in turn would lead them to be adjoined to the spirit of the Institute. Instead of making vows as what the Brothers do, lay Lasallians can opt to bind manifestation of their commitment to God by means of consecration.

---

DLSU-D hosts NEDA Region IV-A meeting

De La Salle University-Dasmariñas hosted the Technical Working Group meeting on Tourism, Hospitality and Entertainment organized by National Economic and Development Authority (NEDA) Region IV-A on July 14, 2016.

Among the guests were representatives from TESDA IV-A, Department of Education IV-A, local government units, Tourism Officer, Hotel Restaurant Association, NEDA IV-A, among others. Representatives from DLSU-D were ULO Director Wilson Jacinto, UAO Director Marco Polo, and CTHM Dean Rowell Paras.

DLSU-D will host the Academics and Industry Linkage Summit in October 2016.

