

Tan paper on domestic violence in Indonesia

Psychology Department's Prof. Virginia Tan, a full-time faculty with DLSU-D's College of Liberal Arts and Communication, presented her paper titled "A Qualitative Study on the Development of Transferred Aggression among Filipino Women with Domestically Abusive Partners" at the 2016 International Social Science, Humanity and Education Research Congress (SSHRC-16) held in Bali, Indonesia.

Tan explored domestic violence experienced by women in abusive marriages as expressed through transferred aggression. Tan did not only present the practical challenges of domestic violence but also suggested solutions for such cases. SSHRC 2016 was attended by delegates from Indonesia, Malaysia, India, Taiwan, Thailand, New Zealand and the Philippines.

PHOTO NEWS: DLSU-D's Grade 10 students gathered together for "Jumpstart: Senior High School Program Orientation," an activity aimed to enlighten and guide students in choosing which track suits them best, on October 13 at Salrial Ballroom, CTHM Building. Invited speakers were from De La Salle Lipa, De La Salle Health Sciences Institute, and DLSU-D Senior High School Department.

Academic-Industry Linkages Summit 2016

Representatives from academic and industry associations gathered together for a summit held at DLSU-D's Ugnayang La Salle, October 25.

Wilson Jacinto, director of DLSU-D's University Linkages Office explained that the aim of the summit was to realign the skills and job readiness of Filipino students with our ASEAN neighbors using 21st century employment assessment.
